TEACHING IN CHANGING TIMES: THE COURAGE TO LEAD Linda Wallinger, Donald H. Reutershan, 2002-04-17
Secondary and college teachers of foreign language and education in the US are the contributors to this group of essays first presented at the 2002 Conference on the Teaching of Foreign Languages Strongly inspired by the events of 9 11 the essays discuss qualities of courage and leadership and apply them to the teaching of foreign languages Changing Leadership for Changing Times Kenneth A. Leithwood, 1998 Changing Teachers, Changing Times Andy Hargreaves, 2001-01-10 The rules of the world are changing It is time for the rules of teaching and teachers work to change with them This is the challenge which Andy Hargreaves sets out in his book on teachers work and culture in the postmodern world Drawing on his current research with teachers at all levels Hargreaves shows through their own vivid words what teaching is really like how it is already changing and why He argues that the structures and cultures of teaching need to change even more if teachers are not to be trapped by guilt pressed by time and overburdened by decisions imposed upon them Provocative yet practical this book is written for teachers and those who work with teachers and for researchers who want to understand teaching better in the postmodern age Theories of Workplace Learning in Changing Times Filip Dochy, David Gijbels, Mien Segers, Piet Van den Bossche, 2021-08-25 This book is an expansion and major updating of the highly successful Theories of Learning for the Workplace first published in 2011 It offers fascinating overviews into some of the most important theories of learning and how they are practically applied to organisational or workplace learning Each chapter is co authored by an academic researcher and an expert in business or industry providing practical case studies combined with a thorough analysis of theories and models of learning Key figures in education psychology and cognitive science present a comprehensive range of conceptual perspectives on learning theory offering a wealth of new insights to support innovative research directions and innovation in learning training and teaching for the upcoming post Covid 19 decades Containing overviews of theories from Argyris Decuyper Dochy Segers Engestr m Ericsson Kolb Lave Wenger Mezirow Raes Boon Sch n Senge and Van den Bossche this book discusses Learning of employees in the digital era Workplace learning High impact learning Informal learning Adult learning Learning development didactics L D Reflective practice Transformational learning Experiential learning Deliberate practice Communities of practice Team learning Organisational learning Expansive learning Combining theory and practice this book will be essential reading for all trainee and practising educational psychologists organisational psychologists researchers and students in the field of lifelong learning educational policy makers students researchers and teachers in vocational and higher education It will also be of interest to those involved in training trainers and teacher training English Language Teacher Education in Changing Times Liz England, Lía D. Kamhi-Stein, Georgios Kormpas, 2023-03-28 This volume addresses challenges that the field of English language teacher education has faced in the past several years The global pandemic has caused extreme stress and has also served as a catalyst for new ways of teaching learning and leading Educators have relied on their creativity and resiliency to identify new and innovative teaching practices and insights that inform the profession going forward Contributors describe how teacher educators have responded to the specific needs and difficulties of educating teachers and teaching second language learners in challenging circumstances around the world and how these innovations can transform education going forward into the future Paving the way for a revitalized profession this book is essential reading for the current and future generations of TESOL scholars graduate students and professors

Changing Times In Teacher Education Marvin F. Wideen, Peter P.

Grimmett, 2013-05-13 Pressures for reform in teacher education have begun to take on the same sense of urgency as school reform Those faculties of education who have been strong advocates for change in the schools now find themselves the subject of similar pressures from governmental policy makers Attempts at change have taken place in many different countries and jurisdictions around the world This book details through a series of international vignettes how teachers are responding to the changing times and social contexts in which they do their work The authors hold the view that changes are inevitable in teacher education but what is not clear is who will control the changes and whether the end result will actually improve the preparation of teachers The theme of the book is that the reform of teacher education should be informed by intelligent debate and that any attempt to restructure teacher preparation should result from a careful reconceptualisation of its purposes and processes

Teaching and Learning in Changing Times Martin Hughes, 1996-01-30

The last few years have seen unprecedented changes in schools in England and Wales as the government attempts to raise standards by a radical programme of educational reforms This book reports the outcome of a major research programme funded by the Economic and Social Research Council ESRC on teaching and learning in the context of the current reforms Written by some of the country's leading educational researchers the book covers a wide range of ages and curriculum areas It provides much needed insight into the nature of teaching and learning as well as practical advice for teachers policy makers and parents

Adult Education in Changing Times Michael Bernhard, Stephen Billett, Christiane Hof, Katrin Kraus, Victoria J.

Marsick, Peter H. Sawchuk, 2026-03-02 This insightful book explores adult learning at the intersection of a rapidly changing world of work and society and the personal lived experiences of individuals navigating these shifts It illuminates the social dimensions of adult learning in the contemporary era highlighting the challenges and opportunities of being able to thrive in times of change Each carefully curated chapter presents theoretical insights empirical findings and diverse perspectives on adult development across the life course drawing from historical cultural and social contexts to enrich the discourse Throughout the authors explore the concept of liquid modernity as a lens to understand the complexities of learning and work presenting innovative frameworks to rethink and redefine these interconnected dynamics They challenge traditional assumptions about lifelong education and invite readers to see learning differently than it was understood in more predictable times By focusing on the dynamic interplay between social contexts life events and lived experiences the book
