The Strategy-focused Organization Robert S. Kaplan,David P. Norton,2001 In today s business environment strategy has never been more important Yet research shows that most companies fail to execute strategy successfully Behind this abysmal track record lies an undeniable fact many companies continue to use management processes top down financially driven and tactical that were designed to run yesterday s organizations Now the creators of the revolutionary performance management tool called the Balanced Scorecard introduce a new approach that makes strategy a continuous process owned not just by top management but by everyone In The Strategy Focused Organization Robert Kaplan and David Norton share the results of ten years of learning and research into more than 200 companies that have implemented the Balanced Scorecard Drawing from more than twenty in depth case studies including Mobil CIGNA Nova Scotia Power and AT T Canada Kaplan and Norton illustrate how Balanced Scorecard adopters have taken their groundbreaking tool to the next level These organizations have used the scorecard to create an entirely new performance management framework that puts strategy at the center of key management processes and systems Kaplan and Norton articulate the five key principles required for building Strategy Focused Organizations 1 translate the strategy to operational terms 2 align the organization to the strategy 3 make strategy everyone s everyday job 4 make strategy a continual process and 5 mobilize change through strong effective leadership The authors provide a detailed account of how a range of organizations in the private public and nonprofit sectors have deployed these principles to achieve breakthrough sustainable performance improvements Presenting a practical proven framework steeped in rich case study experience The Strategy Focused Organization helps solve a universal management problem not just how to formulate strategy but how to make it work Building on one of the most revolutionary business ideas of our time this important book shows how today s leaders can shape their own companies to meet the challenges and reap the rewards of a new competitive era Robert S Kaplan is the Marvin Bower Professor of Leadership Development at Harvard Business School David P Norton is President of Balanced Scorecard Collaborative Inc Strategy Maps ,2018 More than a decade ago Robert S Kaplan and David P Norton introduced the Balanced Scorecard a revolutionary performance measurement system that allowed organizations to quantify intangible assets such as people information and customer relationships Then in The Strategy Focused Organization Kaplan and Norton showed how organizations achieved breakthrough performance with a management system that put the Balanced Scorecard into action Now using their ongoing research with hundreds of Balanced Scorecard adopters across the globe the authors have created a powerful new tool the strategy map that enables companies to describe the links between intangible assets and value creation with a clarity and precision never before possible Kaplan and Norton argue that the most critical aspect of strategy implementing it in a way that ensures sustained value creation depends on managing four key internal processes operations customer relationships innovation and regulatory and social processes The authors show how companies can use strategy maps to link those processes to desired outcomes evaluate measure and improve the processes most critical to success and target investments in human informational and organizational capital Providing a visual aha for executives everywhere who can t figure out why their strategy isn t working Strategy Maps is a blueprint any organization can follow to align processes people and information technology for superior performance Strategy and Strategists James Cunningham,Brian Harney,2012-03-29 Importantly this stimulating text

Controlling Strategy Christopher S. Chapman, 2005-06-09 Ideas about the role of management accounting systems in a firm s strategy have changed in recent years and this book explores the ways in which this has happened Management control systems have frequently been seen as irrelevant to strategy or even damaging Controlling Strategy draws out the various ways in which management control systems can build and sustain valuable strategic roles The book explores topics such as Strategic measurement Strategic data analysis The Balanced Scorecard Capital budgeting and Strategy coordination Written as an introduction to the strategic role of management control systems Controlling Strategy provides a synthesis of important work in the fields of strategy and management accounting Academics and Advanced Students of Accounting Strategy or Management Studies will find the book an indispensable guide to this area Intangible Assets and Value Creation Jürgen H. Daum, 2003 With the use of practical in depth case studies and interviews with leading experts in the field this book analyses the key elements in value creation in the new age It provides practical guidance to organisations that will allow them to migrate successfully into an economy that demands new business models The Strategy Map for General Electric Medical Systems, 2002 Nadine Pahl, 2009-04 Research Paper undergraduate from the year 2008 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1 3 University of Applied Sciences Berlin Master of Business Administration course Strategic Management language English abstract If you take the words of a former General

Electric's GE employee to define strategy William E Rothschild said What do you want to achieve or avoid The answers to this question are objectives How will you go about achieving your desired results The answer to this you can call strategy This statement not only highlights the need for strategy but also the need to bring strategy to fruition Companies should not only devise strategy but also successfully clarify and execute their strategies This means that a company has to be able to measure its strategic success Unfortunately company strategy is not always transparent or understood in the same way by a company's key players Sun Tzu a Chinese military strategist who wrote the military treatise The Art of War praised this aspect for strategies in war as follows All men can see these tactics whereby I conquer but what none can see is the strategy out of which victory is evolved The Strategy Map created by Kaplan and Norton is to facilitate corporate strategy development and execution providing a missing link between strategy formulation and strategy implementation by identifying the key internal processes that drive strategic success and by aligning investment in people technology and organizational capital for the greatest impact The first part of the assignment describes in detail the theoretical framework of Strategy Maps The second part uses the theory to describe and visualize the Strategy Map of General Electric Medical Systems GEMS the world's leading manufacturer of diagnostic imaging equipment This practical approach is based on the publication of Tarun Khanna about GEMS in the Harvard Business School Press in Strategy Maps, 2004
