British art cinema Paul Newland,Brian Hoyle,2019-07-23 This is the first book to provide a direct and comprehensive account of British art cinema Film history has tended to view British filmmakers as aesthetically conservative but the truth is they have a long tradition of experiment and artistry both within and beyond the mainstream Beginning with the silent period and running up to the 2010s the book draws attention to this tradition while acknowledging that art cinema in Britain is a complex and fluid concept that needs to be considered within broader concerns It will be of particular interest to scholars and students of British cinema history film genre experimental filmmaking and British cultural history

Australian International Pictures (1946 - 75) Constantine Verevis,Adrian Danks,2023-01-09 Australian International Pictures examines the concept and definition of Australian film in relation to a range of local international and global practices and trends that blur neat categorisations of national cinema Although international co production is particularly acute in the present day this book examines the porous nature of Australian International filmmaking and the intriguing transnational and cross cultural formations created by globally targeted but locally focussed films made in Australia in the period 1946-75

The Planetary Clock Paul Giles,2021 Ranging over various aesthetic forms literature film music in the period since 1960 this volume brings an antipodean perspective into conversation with the art and culture of the Northern Hemisphere to reformulate postmodernism as a properly global phenomenon
