Mexican Travel Writing Thea Pitman, 2008 This book is a detailed study of salient examples of Mexican travel writing from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries While scholars have often explored the close relationship between European or North American travel writing and the discourse of imperialism little has been written on how postcolonial subjects might relate to the genre This study first traces the development of a travel writing tradition based closely on European imperialist models in mid nineteenth century Mexico It then goes on to analyse how the narrative techniques of postmodernism and the political agenda of postcolonialism might combine to help challenge the genre s imperialist tendencies in late twentieth century works of travel writing focusing in particular on works by writers Juan Villoro Hector Perea and Fernando Solana Olivares

Travel Writing in the Nineteenth Century Tim Youngs, 2006-09-01 Long popular with a general readership travel writing has in the past three decades or so become firmly established as an object of serious and multi disciplinary academic inquiry Few of the scholarly and popular publications that have focused on the nineteenth century have regarded the century as a whole This broad volume examines the cultural and social aspects of travel writing on Africa Asia America the Balkans and Australasia

Chasing Methuselah Todd T. W. Daly, 2021-02-04 The quest to live much longer has moved from legend to the laboratory Recent breakthroughs in genetics and pharmacology have put humanity on the precipice of slowing down human aging to extend the healthy life span The promise of longer healthier life is enormously attractive and poses several challenging questions for Christians Who wouldn t want to live 120 years or more before dying quickly How do we make sense of human aging in light of Jesus invitation to daily take up our crosses with the promise of the resurrection to come Is there anything wrong with manipulating our bodies technologically to live longer If so how long is too long Should aging itself be treated as a disease In Chasing Methuselah Todd Daly examines the modern biomedical anti aging project from a Christian perspective drawing on the ancient wisdom of the Desert Fathers who believed that the incarnation opened a way for human life to regain the longevity of Adam and the biblical patriarchs through prayer and fasting Daly balances these insights with the christological anthropology of Karl Barth discussing the implications for human finitude fear of death and the use of anti aging technology
