Tomorrows Rainbow:

Tomorrow's Rainbow VeraLee Wiggins,1997 Coconut Creek Daniel T. Hobby,2012 On February 19 1967 all but four of the 240 registered voters in the Coconut Creek residential development gathered at a local church to vote on a single issue whether or not to incorporate the neighborhood as a new city By a greater than two to one majority those in favor of incorporation won out and Coconut Creek became Broward County s 32nd municipality It may not have been obvious at that moment but the creation of Coconut Creek ended a dozen years of city building throughout the county It also underscored the end of agriculture as an economic mainstay of the region The new city had a distinctly small town feel with most municipal functions handled by volunteers Before long a population explosion brought new residential and commercial developments forcing city leaders to confront issues of managing growth protecting the environment and maintaining the quality of life for city residents The success of these efforts is seen in today s Coconut Creek Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
