A Humanistic Exploration of The Bluest Eye and Beloved* Sumedha Bhandari, 2017-02-08 Toni Morrison the eighth American to receive the Nobel Prize in Literature is perhaps the most formally sophisticated novelist in the history of

African American literature Astutely she describes aspects of human lives and unlike many other writers reveals the hope and beauty that underlines the worlds ugliness Her artistic excellence lies in achieving a perfect balance between black literature and writing about the universal truth Although firmly grounded in the cultural heritage and social concerns of black Americans her work transcends narrowly prescribed conceptions of ethnic literature exhibiting universal mythical patterns and overtones Her novels thus mourn on universal concerns The endeavor in this study is to scrutinize the unspoken lexis of Toni Morrison s works and to unveil the layers of humanistic concerns that provide denotations to her words Earlier studies on this writer have concentrated on adjudging her as a writer addressing problems of black people However this book tries to extend this notion to encompass the problems of whole human community by assimilating blacks in the general drama of life Before dyeing the strings of Morrison s novels with the colour of humanist concerns this book delineates the term Humanism from which these humanistic concerns arise
