Trail Angels and Devils Terry Larson,2001-05-23 Another season for the Pacific Crest Trail PCT hikers began as usual at the Mexican California border a few miles south of the town of Campo California Little did the early hikers know what they had in store for some of them Somewhere up the trail a killer or two was waiting to strike with the intent to kill for unknown reasons Who would have thought that such animosity could prevail along a famous trail designed for innocent outdoor recreation Who was it they had to fear Was it the Trail Devils a gang from the town of Mojave that was camping next to the trail for the summer for the purpose of harassing the hikers and young bikers Or was it a Trail Angel a person dedicated to helping the logistics of the hikers Or perhaps it was the hired ranch hand who patrolled the trail to guarantee nobody abused the easement rights of the TJ Ranch property in Antelope Valley Or was it someone else Would the hikers traced up the trail make it to Canada including the man possessed to be the first to go all the way up and back to the Mexican border or would they meet death by the time they got to the Tehachapi Mountains Who was going to solve these mystery deaths the sheriff deputies out of Mojave or was it going to be someone familiar with the trail Zero Days Barbara Egbert,2010-01-01 In April 2004 Barbara Egbert and Gary Chambers and their precocious 10 year old daughter Mary embarked on a 2 650 mile hike from Mexico to Canada along the famed Pacific Crest Trail This the well told tale of their epic adventure which required love perseverance and the careful rationing of toilet paper Six months later Mary would become the youngest person ever to successfully walk the entire trail The trio weathered the heat of the Mojave the jagged peaks of the Sierra the rain of Oregon and the final cold stretch through the Northern Cascades They discovered which family values from love and equality to thrift and cleanliness could withstand a long narrow trail and 137 nights together in a 6 by 8 foot tent Filled with tidbits of wisdom practical advice and humor this story will both entertain and inspire readers to dream about and plan their own epic journey travel and luxury hotels capitalized on a surge in discretionary income for many Americans combined with newfound leisure time From major destinations like Las Vegas to revitalized towns like Aspen and Moab Rothman reveals how the introduction of tourism into a community may seem innocuous but residents gradually realize as they seek to preserve the authenticity of their communities that decision making power has subtly shifted from the community itself to the newly arrived corporate financiers And because tourism often results in a redistribution of wealth and power to outsiders observes Rothman it represents a new form of colonialism for the region By depicting the nature of tourism in the American West through true stories of places and individuals that have felt its grasp Rothman doesn't just document the effects of tourism but provides us with an enlightened explanation of the shape these changes take Deftly balancing historical perspective with an eye for what's happening in the region right now his book sets new standards for the study of tourism and is one that no citizen of the West whose life is touched by that industry can afford to ignore
