Transforming Education Jane L. David,Paul D. Goren,1993 Barriers to progress in educational reform exist inside and outside the education system Some arise where new practices encounter traditional expectations and boundaries but others go much deeper than education such as poverty racism local political conflicts and human resistance to change The following five categories of barriers are particularly prevalent and significant among the vanguard schools and districts in this study 1 lack of clear direction 2 weak incentives for change 3 regulatory and compliance mentality 4 limited learning opportunities for educators and 5 poor communication Governors can use their roles as leaders to help overcome these barriers by promoting goals that support high performance and access to resources Like schools state education systems cannot be reformed overnight but progress to date documented by several case studies indicates that systems can move forward The work of vanguard schools leaders in educational reform is explored Contains 10 references SLD

Deeper Learning Monica R. Martinez,Dennis McGrath,2018-06-05 The acclaimed exploration of how public education can cultivate innovators with a foreword by Russlynn Ali a leading advocate for remaking schools Dime a dozen ideas for reforming education seem to be everywhere these days but few actually transform the everyday experience of the 50 million plus students who are regularly subjected to traditional lecturing note taking and rote learning often with dismal results Enter Deeper Learning a fast read that will interest educators who want to produce self motivated passionate learners Library Journal Offering uplifting Kirkus Reviews anecdotes in what Tom Carroll of the National Commission on Teaching and America s Future calls a rare blend of inspiration and practical action Deeper Learning provides a blueprint for creating flexible environments that put students at the helm of their own collaborative learning experience This paperback edition includes a new foreword by renowned education advocate Russlynn Ali and will empower and inspire educators everywhere to address the need for schools to be genuinely innovative
