House of Commons - Education Committee: School partnerships and Cooperation - HC 269 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee, 2013-11-06 The Government wants schools to take more responsibility for themselves and each other in delivering a true self improving school system It wants schools to look not to local authorities for expertise but to each other We have no problem with that vision and think the wide range of models and structures already in place is a strength and proof of vitality We support moves to give schools more freedom to innovate but we argue that the creation of a self improving system needs a degree of coordination and strong incentives to encourage schools to look beyond their own school gate Otherwise there is a danger that many schools will operate in isolation rather than in cooperation Academy chains are generally performing well but raise particular questions and need specific solutions We recommend that it should be made clear how academies can leave chains either with or without mutual consent We also call for the Department for Education to monitor more effectively the extent to which convertor academies meet the expectation that they should support other schools The report calls for amongst other recommendations that Ofsted to be given the powers to inspect academy chains and for Government to formalise procedures for schools to leave academy chains by mutual consent and to set out how an outstanding school can leave a chain against the wishes of the chain management Wireless Lans And Home Networks: Connecting Offices And Homes - Proceedings Of The International Conference Benny Bing,2001-11-22 The 2001 International Conference on Wireless LANs and Home Networks showcased some of the world s most dynamic presenters including Dr Leonard Keinrock inventor of Internet technology as well as leading experts from 20 countries who dealt with the latest technological breakthroughs This book is a collection of technical papers presented at the conference It comprises 32 high quality papers that have been carefully selected from more than 100 submissions School Reports as a Means of Securing Additional Support for Education in American Cities Mervin Gordon Neale,1921 The Budget of the United States Government United States.
