

the Creative Process

keeping control of your steps and improving your work

1 Think.

Get a grip on what you think you are making.
What are you trying to communicate to your audience?

2 Recognise your inspirations.

Research! Know what has inspired you and know your content. Knowing more about your topic will help you connect dots you didn't know were there and strengthen your message.

3 Define your concept.

It helps to provide yourself with guidelines and a bottom line. Know the themes of your work and the concept so you can return to the heart of the matter when you get lost.

4 Select your tools.

This is your means to creation; making your idea into a work. Choosing your medium often happens at an instinctive level. Be aware that the parameters of a medium can really define the character of a work.
