Walking Hawk:

Participants in the Battle of the Little Big Horn Frederic C. Wagner III, 2016-01-13 The Battle of the Little Big Horn was the decisive engagement of the Great Sioux War of 1876-1877. In its second edition, this biographical dictionary of all known participants, the 7th Cavalry, civilians, and Indians provides a brief description of the battle as well as information on the various tribes, their customs, and methods of fighting. Seven appendices cover the units, soldiers, uniforms, and equipment of the cavalry, controversial listings of scouts, and the number of Indians in the encampments, the location of camps on the way to the Big Horn, and more. Updated biographies are provided for many European soldiers, along with an additional 5,060 names of Indians who were or could have been in the battle. The Visitant Kathleen O'Neal Gear, W. Michael Gear, 2000-06-15 A woman runs away in search of a spiritual helper never to return. Helltown Massacre William W. Johnstone, J.A. Johnstone, 2011-01-28 The Greatest Western Writer of the 21st Century. Courage was in the blood. A battle was on the land. Three generations of mountain men bound by a passion for justice have come together in William W. Johnstone and J.A. Johnstone's towering new saga as the legendary Jensens fight for one another's lives on the untamed American frontier. One Family, One Cause, One Deadly Mistake. A woman and an iron horse put Matt Jensen in the crosshairs of a man out to reap a fortune with a new railroad through Paiute land. First, Cyrus Longacre steals the land. Next, he frames Matt Jensen for the murder of a beautiful woman. The final step is to keep Matt's father and grandfather far away from Nevada Territory. Preacher and Smoke are otherwise engaged until some hired killers get their attention. Suddenly, the elder Jensens have a hunch young Matt is in trouble, and together they're riding to Paiute country. They have a hanging to stop and a war to start, three men against a half a hundred. Impossible odds. Unless your name is Jensen. Trail and Timberline, 1923

Annual Reports, 1884 Senate documents, 1895 Supreme Court State of New York, Our Dumb Animals, 1928 Shaman Or Sherlock? Gina Macdonald, Andrew F. Macdonald, MaryAnn Sheridan, 2002 Fictional depictions of Native American concepts of justice, crime, and the investigation of crime are explored in this original work. Shaman or Sherlock explores depictions created by Native American authors themselves as well as those created by outsiders with mainstream agendas. The most successful of these writers fuse authentic Native American culture with standard genre conventions, thus providing an appealing, empathetic view of little understood or underappreciated groups, as well as insight into issues of cross-cultural communication. Dealing with such significant concepts as acculturation, regional diversity, and assimilation, this unique study evaluates over 200 detective stories. Though the crime novel began in Europe as a manifestation of Enlightenment rationality and scientific methodology, the Native American detective story moves into the realm of the spiritual and intuitive, often incorporating depictions of non-material phenomena. Shaman or Sherlock explores how geographical and tribal differences, degrees of assimilation, and the evolution of age-old cultural patterns shape the Native American detective story. Country-side, 1920 Science gossip and country queries and notes are incorporated.
