- The most typical expression of Renaissance poetry was the Sonnet. Dante and Petrarch had a great influence on the diffusion of this new genre in England.
- The greatest English sonnet writers of the Renaissance were Philip Sidney (Astrophil and Stella), Edmund Spenser (Amoretti) and William Shakespeare.
- The themes were: love, friendship, beauty, the destructive effect of time and the desire for women who were unattainable.
  - For the poet, love is inspired by the beauty of his beloved, which he tries to capture in poetic form.
  - The lady is an idealised figure and the love felt by the poet is often a platonic one

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
