Crisscrossing Borders in Literature of the American West R. Dyck,C. Reutter,2009-03-02 In one consequential volume Crisscrossing Borders in Literature of the American West presents the cross section of a fast changing and greatly expanded field Through interdisciplinary essays this volume on the post national West challenges the idea of a unified national story sustained by strategic exclusions Contributors analyze the economic and environmental exploitation depicted in working class Western literature emphasize the transnational by approaching both the North South and cross Atlantic axes grapple with the role of Mormons and dissect the new masculinity of Silicon Gunslingers Each essay successfully and compellingly models a new and fruitful way of engaging the West

Constructing Rhetorical Education Davida Charney,Wilma R. Ebbitt,1992 In nineteen essays illustrating its many aspects this book offers an argument for what it takes to construct a complete rhetorical education The editors take an approach that is pragmatic and pluralistic based as it is on the assumptions that a rhetorical education is not limited to teaching freshman composition or any specific writing course and that the contexts in which such an education occurs are not limited to classrooms This thought provoking volume stresses that while a rhetorical education results in the growth of writing skills its larger goal is to foster critical thinking
