Sound Relations Jessica Bissett Perea,2021 Sound Relations delves into histories of Inuit musical life in Alaska to register the significance of sound as integral to self determination and sovereignty Offering radical and relational ways of listening to Inuit performances across a range of genres from hip hop to Christian hymnody and traditional drumsongs to funk and R B author Jessica Bissett Perea registers how a density not difference of Indigenous ways of musicking from a vast archive of presence sounds out entanglements between structures of Indigeneity and colonialism This work dismantles stereotypical understandings of Eskimos Indians and Natives by addressing the following questions What exactly is Native about Native music What does it mean to sound or not sound Native Who decides And how can in depth analyses of Native music that center Indigeneity reframe larger debates of race power and representation in twenty first century American music historiography Instead of proposing singular truths or facts this book invites readers to consider the existence of multiple simultaneous truths a density of truths all of which are culturally constructed performed and in some cases politicized and policed Native ways of doing music history engage processes of sound worlding that envision otherwise beyond nation state notions of containment and glorifications of Alaska as solely an extraction site for U S settler capitalism and instead amplifies possibilities for more just and equitable futures

Muthunayagam, 2022-06-30 In 2008 with the successful launch of Chandrayaan 1 India's first mission to the Moon the Indian Space Research Organisation ISRO joined an elite space club The foundation of this achievement however was laid decades ago by a small group of people one of whom was Dr Abraham E Muthunayagam Handpicked by Dr Vikram Sarabhai Muthunayagam was the chief architect of rocket propulsion in the country directing the project that developed the Vikas engine which sent many Indian rockets into space including the one that took Chandrayaan 1 to the Moon In From Space to Sea and Beyond Muthunayagam looks back at the nascent phase of the Indian space programme the breakthroughs international collaborations and professional rivalries and jealousies that were the highlight of his years at ISRO Though he was eventually transferred from the organization it did not signal the end of his career Just like propulsion systems land up in the ocean after completing their missions in space Muthunayagam too joined and subsequently transformed the Department of Ocean Development A riveting mix of memoir and history this book is an inspiring call to young Indians to carry forward the spirit of enquiry Even in the Rain Chuen-Fung Wong, 2023 Even in the Rain Uyghur Music in Modern China explores music as constitutive of Uyghur cultural and social life where subaltern experiences of ethnicity race and nationhood are indexed A Central Asian Turkic speaking predominantly Muslim people the Uyghur are identified in China as one of the fifty five officially designated minority nationalities Drawing on extensive fieldwork in the Uyghur homeland in the far Chinese northwest Chuen Fung Wong focuses on aspects of Uyghur music making as it faces the state's management of minority art expressions Music serves as a metaphor of the Uyghur nation as heritage miras culture medeniyet and tradition en ene while it struggles to survive respond and adapt to the Chinese state s aggressive maneuvering and the broader intercultural influences that have shaped Uyghur performing arts in modern times As the Uyghur and other non Han peoples in China continue to be minoritized under the pretexts of multiculturalism and cultural enlightenment local musicians and audiences react with a vast range of performing and listening approaches to engage assimilation racism and other grim realities of everyday life Even in the Rain provides the political historical and theoretical context to address overlapping genres and soundscapes which are bound by creative processes that have negotiated the state s minority policy and the collective pursuit of identity With a focus on the minoritized musical consciousness in Uyghur performance especially on the ways in which Uyghur musicians encounter modernity under a colonial context this book examines the cultivation of a unique musical deftness that has allowed musicians to move across the various localizing strategies and intercultural practices Uyghur musical modernity should not be understood as the passive acceptance of outside influences and certainly not the erasure of indigenous elements and national heritage Local traditions and hegemonic influences sometimes appear to be more collaborating than conflicting in that subaltern expressions actively opt to manifest in forms that are dominant and deemed universal This timely and comprehensive analysis spans approximately seven decades of modern Uyghur musical life during which musicians and audiences adopted an array of methods experimenting with new identity formations to navigate life as often reluctant Chinese citizens

Post-colonial Distances Beverley Diamond, Denis Crowdy, Daniel Mark Downes, 2008 This anthology emanated from a conference in St John TM s Newfoundland that brought together popular music scholars folklorists and ethnomusicologists from Canada and Australia Implicit in that conference and in this anthology is the comparability of the two countries Their post colonial TM status if that is indeed an appropriate modifier in either case has some points of similarity On the other hand their distance TM from hegemonic centres from colonial histories is arguably more a matter of contrast than similarity Canada and Australia are similar in various regards Post colonial in the sense that they are both former British colonies they now each have more than a century of stature as nation states By the beginning of the 21st century they are each modest in size but rich in ethnocultural diversity Nonetheless each country has some skeletons in the closet where openness to difference to indigenous and new immigrant groups are concerned Both countries are similarly both experiencing rapid shifts in cultural makeup with the biggest population increases in Australia coming from China India and South Africa and the biggest in Canada from Afro Caribbean South Asian countries and China The chapters in this anthology constitute an important comparative initiative Perhaps the most obvious point of comparison is that both countries create commercial music in the shadow of the hegemonic US and British industries As the authors demonstrate both proximity specifically Canada TM s nearness to the US and distance have advantages and disadvantages As the third and fourth largest Anglophone music markets for popular music they face similar issues relating to music management performance markets and production A second relationship as chapters in this anthology attest is the significant movement between the two countries in a matrix of exchange and influence among musicians that has rarely been studied hitherto Third both countries invite comparison with regard to the popular music production of diverse social groups within their national populations In particular the tremendous growth of indigenous popular music has resulted in opportunities as well as challenges Additionally however the strategies that different waves of immigrants have adopted to devise or localize popular music that was both competitive and meaningful to their own people as well as to a larger demographic bear comparison The historical similarities and differences as well as the global positionality of each country in the early 21st century then invites comparison relating to musical practices social organization lyrics as they articulate social issues career strategies industry structures and listeners
