South Street:

South Street William Gardner Smith, 1954 South Street Barbara Mensch, 2009-11-26 South Street is Barbara G Mensch's evocative tribute to the lost world of Lower Manhattan's Fulton Fish Market. For more than a century a colorful tightly knit community of fishmongers many of them recent immigrants and children of immigrants thrived under the base of the Brooklyn Bridge. Resistant to government regulations and corporate encroachment these men lived in a closed internally policed world that was deeply hostile to outsiders. As a young photographer in the early 1980s Mensch bonded with this particular group of authentic New Yorkers becoming a confidante for their life stories which were often filled with hardship mystery and misadventures. These striking photographs capture the unique personality and fierce secrecy of their vibrant working class culture. Combined with lively commentary reminiscent of Studs Terkel's riveting oral histories the images offer a rare peek inside a society described by Philip Lopate as a precious last vestige of historic Gotham. Mensch's story ends with the closure of the docks and the opening of the Seaport mall a symbolic victory of corporate interests over more than a century of mob rule. Her visual essay recounts the driving forces and the effects of this urban transformation on the entrenched community of fishmongers creating an enduring historical document. Though the Fulton Fish Market no longer resides below the Brooklyn Bridge the history and energy of this cherished New York City landmark are beautifully preserved in this book. Preserving South Street Seaport James Michael Lindgren, 2014 No detailed description available for Preserving South Street Seaport South Street David Bradley, 1977 Westwood's Parochial Directory for the Counties of Fife and Kinross, Etc Directories. - Fife, 1866 Kelly's directory of Hull and its neighbourhood Kelly's directories, ltd, 1903 Post Office Guide Great Britain. This guide to the South Street district lists nine walking tours that incorporate text maps photographs and drawings to give insight and understanding into this unique area. A new Kind of urbanism manipulative dispersed and hostile to traditional public space is emerging both at the heart and at the edge of town in megamalls corporate enclaves gentrified zones and pseudo historic marketplaces. If anything can be described as a paradigm for these places it's the theme park an apparently benign environment in which all is structured to achieve maximum control.
