is a fictionalized autobiography It needs to be fictionalized just as a resume needs to be embellished It may not be as believable but the fictionalized parts are intended to be much more entertaining The events described in the book really happened The specifics such as the minute details and the dialogue may not be historically accurate The term unauthorized autobiography though somewhat oxymoronic has a purpose Real Yoopers may take exception to the use of this word in the title since the author has lived most of his life outside of the Upper Peninsula His journey parallels at times and intersects at other times with the journey of his favorite relative his Uncle Hal Nowell Uncle Hal teams up with him from time to time with a mix of shared adventures and misadventures The author was positively influenced by the town and the many good people of Escanaba

Close Calls Jeremiah Reedy, 2009-12-29 The title of these memoirs may suggest that I wrote them against my will That would be only half right A part of me wanted to write an account of my life and another part of me opposed doing so In the end I overcame my misgivings and went ahead I realize that writing one's memoirs may sound pretentious since it used to be that only important people such as former presidents and retired diplomats did so This is no longer the case there are now kids of twenty five who are writing memoirs There are several advantages in recording one's memoirs instead of writing history For one thing readers can always criticize the historian if they find errors of fact The memoirist is however incorrigible in the original Latin sense of the word since no one can say That's not how you remember that event Another advantage is that it doesn't require a lot of research I have written fifteen page scholarly articles that have sixty five footnotes I've sometimes read whole books just to support one sentence with one footnote For a long time I've thought how much fun it would be to write something that wouldn't require months of research and it was fun Anyone who relaxes closes his eyes and travels back in time will be astounded to discover how much is stored deep down in the recesses of the mind I made outlines and drafts full of abbreviations and then I dictated to my computer using MacSpeech Dictate It's wonderful to speak and see the words appear on the screen Of course the first draft required extensive editing for many reasons but I enjoyed that too In a sense I only did what grandparents have done since tape recorders were invented but now technology enables us to turn it into a book The bare bones non scintillating style of what I have produced is partially due to the fact that it was dictated I could have spent months or even years polishing what I have written but as the poet Andrew Marvell put it At my back I always hear Time's winged chariot hurrying near I mainly have my grandchildren in mind as an audience but it may be that other relatives and even some friends will find the end product diverting I have no illusions about any widespread interest and I certainly don't expect to sell any copies or earn any royalties If there is a pattern to my life it is that Divine Providence repeatedly saved me from my own foolishness Time and again I wanted something desperately and didn't get it only to find that God had something much better in store for me There were many more close calls than I discuss herein many too frightening to contemplate or record Looking at what I've accomplished in another way a cynical friend once told me I haven't done as well as my friends expected but I've done better than my enemies hoped There is much to be thankful for My teacher Elizabeth Jarrett Andrew read a draft of the manuscript and made many valuable suggestions It is a pleasure to thank her publicly for her assistance and inspiration
