Uncle Grubby:

Uncle Grubby Will Ryan, 1985-12 Uncle Grubby Will Ryan, 1985 Spoofers Rooney Jonathan Kebbe, 2011-11-30

They've put a price on Hopper's head A million quid I heard it said Hopper Rooney's famous for his outrageously unreal stories So it's no surprise that no one believes him when he tells them that someone is living in his dad's garden shed Dad's in hospital the weight walking off him his head filled with worry about his garage business and Hopper is sure that the last thing he needs to know is that a mysterious African has moved in with their lawn mower Can Spoofers prove he's not the eejit everyone reckons he is That this time he's telling the truth Bring him in alive or dead And never let a tear be shed

Modern Jewish Women Writers in America E. Avery, 2007-05-28 This collection includes groundbreaking essays and interviews with scholars and writers which reveal that despite pressures of assimilation personal goals and in some cases anti-Semitism they have never been able to divorce their lives or literature from their heritage The Road to Cooperstown Tom Stanton, 2004-05 From the author of The Final Season comes a true bonding experience at the heart of this book about baseball family the Hall of Fame and the town with which it shares a rich heritage Photos Green Talk in the White House Tarla Rai Peterson, 2004 Annotation This book gathers an array of approaches to studying environmental rhetoric and the presidency covering a range of administrations and a diversity of viewpoints on how the concept of the rhetorical presidency may be modified in this policy area Politically Incorrect Guide to Science Tom Bethell, 2005-11-25 If the globe is warming is mankind responsible or is the sun Such a statement does not appear out of place in Bethell's entertaining account of how modern science is politically motivated and in desperate need of oversight Bethell writes in a compulsively readable style and although he provides legitimate insight into the potential benefits of nuclear power and hormesis some readers will be turned off when he attempts to disprove global warming and especially evolution Throughout the book Bethell makes questionable claims about subjects as varied as AIDS careful U.S. studies had already shown that at least a thousand sexual contacts are needed to achieve heterosexual transmission of the virus and extinction It is not possible definitely to attribute any given extinction to human activity and backs up his arguments with references to the music magazine SPIN and thriller writer Michael Crichton Ironically Bethell ends up proving his own premise by producing a highly politicized account of how liberal intellectuals and unchecked government agencies have created a white-coated priesthood whose lust for grant money has driven them to produce fearsome but in Bethell's view false tales of ozone destruction and AIDS pandemics In the end this book is unlikely to sway readers who aren't already in Bethell's ideological camp as any points worthy of discussion get lost in the glut of unsourced claims that populate this latest installment of The Politically Incorrect Guide series
