Distant Skies Melissa A. Priblo Chapman, 2020-11-15 Melissa Chapman was 23 years old and part of a happy loving family She had a decent job a boyfriend she cared about and friends she enjoyed Yet she said goodbye to all of it Carrying a puppy named Gypsy she climbed aboard a horse and rode away from everything heading west With no cell phone no GPS no support team or truck following with supplies Chapman quickly learned that the reality of a cross country horseback journey was quite different from the fantasy Her solo adventure would immediately test her mental physical and emotional resources as she and her four legged companions were forced to adapt to the dangers and loneliness of a trek that would span over 2 600 miles beginning in New York State and reaching its end on the other side of the country in California Enchanted by the freedom a nomadic life seemed to promise the young woman would soon find herself only more deeply connected to the animals that accompanied her to the varying and challenging landscapes through which she traveled and to the people she met on the farms and back roads that crisscross the United States Her tale is part American road trip part coming of age adventure and part uncommon love story a remarkable memoir that explores the evolution of the human animal relationship along with the raw beauty of a life lived outdoors
