Huey, 2020-03-23 This study of the Japanese imperial court in the early thirteenth century focuses on the compilation of one of Japan's most important poetry collections Shinkokinsh Using personal diaries court records poetry texts and literary treatises Robert N Huey reconstructs the process by which Retired Emperor Go Toba brought together contending factions to produce this collection and laid the groundwork for his later attempt at imperial restoration The work analyzes how poetic discourse of the imperial court animated both other kinds of writing and other activities Finally it underscores the inextricable ties between the writing of poetry and court politics Shinkokinsh the New Kokinshu has been viewed as a neo classical effort Reading history backward scholars have often taken the work to be the outgrowth of a nostalgia for greatness presumed to have been lost in the wars of the origins of the collection The author argues that the compilers of Shinkokinsh instead saw it as a new beginning a revitalization and affirmation of courtly traditions and not a reaction to loss It is a dynamic collection full of innovative challenging poetry not an elegy for a lost age East & West William Aspenwall Bradley, George Sidney Hellman, 1900
