Woman Of Conscience:

A Longing for Wisdom Patricia S. Taylor Edmisten, 2010-10-14 Patricia S Taylor Edmisten was raised and educated with the traditions of the Catholic faith But in later years she began to question this faith on which she had relied for most of her life In A Longing for Wisdom she probes her conscience and presents writings about women particularly their diminished role in the Catholic Church In this collection of poetry prose memoir and essays Edmisten addresses a range of issues relating to women The uniqueness of womens talents burdens and sorrow The failure of the hierarchy of mainstream churches to recognize the contributions of women in the Churchs history The widely accepted relegation of women to peripheral rather than central roles within churches The unexamined unease the hierarchy and some priests exhibit toward sexuality their own and womens contributing to injustice within the Church and society Challenging thought provoking and inspiring self examination A Longing for Wisdom calls for Church reform in an era where conventional wisdom has taken precedence over the wisdom of Christ

And God Made Woman Rev. Dr. G. Earl Singleton, 2023-11-08 It is important that we understand from a biblical perspective concerning the woman s fall from grace and being expelled from the garden of Eden It involves the necessary steps taken in order for her to receive mercy grace justification and salvation which in turn will first of all provide forgiveness and redemption through the redeemed blood of Jesus Christ Second I m hoping that this book will become a real force of reconciliation especially for those couples contemplating separation or divorce Also recognizing the importance of a doctrinal belief system and how it affects the raising of children Furthermore an overall viewpoint of marriage enhancement through questions and answers surveys to improve wife husband longevity The book ends with letters addressed to various personalities including the experiences that I have encountered along the way regarding these relationships Lastly I must mention that the most important name in this book is Jesus I pray that whoever reads this book and do not know Jesus knows no matter where you are in life Take the time now and receive Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior Read Romans 10 9 and follow instructions God bless Amen

Painting Women Patricia Phillippy, 2020-03-03 This original analysis of the representation and self representation of women in literature and visual arts revolves around multiple early modern senses of painting the creation of visual art in the form of paint on canvas and the use of cosmetics to paint women s bodies Situating her study in sixteenth and seventeenth century Italy France and England Patricia Phillippy brings together three distinct actors women who paint themselves with cosmetics women who paint on canvas and women and men who paint women either with pigment or with words Phillippy asserts that early modern attitudes toward painting cosmetics and poetry emerge from and respond to a common cultural history Materially she connects those who created images of women with pigment to those who applied cosmetics to their own bodies through similar mediums tools techniques and exposure to toxic materials Discursively she illuminates historical and social issues such as gender and morality with the nexus of painting painted women and women painters Teasing out the intricate relationships between these activities as carried out by women and their visual and literary representation by women and by men Phillippy aims to reveal the delineation and transgression of women s creative roles both artistic and biological In Painting Women Phillippy provides a cross disciplinary study of women as objects and agents of painting The Young Woman's Journal ,1904 John Foxe and His World Christopher Highley,John N.
