Women In Government:

The Impact of Women in Public Office Susan J. Carroll, 2001-11-12 A well integrated volume by one of the best known political scientists working on women and politics It includes contributions by leading scholars in the field and provides a well written and accessible overview of the impact of women in office at every level Pippa Norris John F Kennedy School of Government Harvard University This book will be the standard bearer not simply because it contains most of the early research in the field but more importantly because of the wide ranging scope and diversity of the research and the subsequently nuanced and contextualized arguments presented Beth Reingold Emory University In recent years the numbers of women serving in public offices at various levels of government have increased markedly Is the increasing presence of women in public office making a difference Are women public officials having a distinctive impact on public policy and the political process These questions are central to the studies in The Impact of Women in Public Office These studies examine the impact of women public officials serving in various offices and locales at local state and national levels They are the product of a large coordinated research project sponsored by the Center for American Women and Politics CAWP at Rutgers University and funded by the Charles H Revson Foundation The subjects of these studies range from a single very prominent U S Senator who served in Congress from the early 1940s to the early 1970s to local council members in a New Jersey county in the 1980s They include state legislators from across the country The research presented in this volume offers compelling evidence that women public officials do have a gender related impact on public policy and the political process Nevertheless context matters these studies demonstrate that the impact of women public officials varies considerably across political environments Finally the research in this volume suggests that identification with feminism and or of particular racial or ethnic group also influence how and to what extent women public officials are making a difference Contributors include Edith J Barrett Susan Abrams Beck Janet K Boles Susan J Carroll Debra L Dodson Lyn Kathlene Elaine Martin Nancy E McGlen Meredith Reid Sarkees Janann Sherman Sue Thomas Sue Tolleson Rinehart and Susan Welch
