Soul Train:

A Critical History of Soul Train on Television Christopher P. Lehman, 2008-04-30 As a wildly popular local dance show Soul Train provided a venue for Chicago's soul singers and political activists and gave African American teenagers their first significant chance to see and identify with their peers on television The subsequent national series garnered even more popularity establishing producer and host Don Cornelius as one of the most successful pioneers of African American television production This work discusses Cornelius's role in the evolution of his groundbreaking series from a small all black 1970s television show to a lucrative brand name applying not only to the program but also to awards and various merchandise in the present day The first two chapters focus on Cornelius's years in Chicago and the initial launching of Soul Train in 1970 The next two chapters explore how the nationally televised California based version of the show rose steadily in both popularity and cultural influence among primarily African American viewers and how Cornelius himself became a rising celebrity during that time The final chapters illustrate Cornelius's efforts in branching out beyond the dance show through various music related business ventures including the Soul Train Music Awards The work includes interviews with several former cast members and guests along with a complete chronology of the series and Cornelius's other professional ventures the Songs from Your Heart author Philip M. Moey shares his knowledge and experiences of life's spiritual pathways. Moey's fifteen years of research has taught him that though there are many universal principles about life, many are fundamentally the same but approached from different angles. The paths eventually lead to a single life worth living if you choose to do it well. And to live well, you cannot allow the music to die within you. Moey includes his personal musical flavor, but that does not mean it has to be ours; he reminds us that each of us has a song to be sung and showcased. The Musical Soul Train will thrill anyone who longs to tell his or her own story and anyone who is looking for a more meaningful, inspired life.

Spiritual Soul Train Ride Kathy Carpenter, 2015-07-30 All aboard! Travel with me on God's spiritual soul train. When I was three years old, I boarded a train and waved goodbye to my mother. I never saw her face again. Separated from our brother, I wrapped my arms around my sister, and God wrapped his arms around me. I did not realize at that moment that God had given me a job at that station in my life. I looked out the window and saw a blue sky of hope that I will remember always. My life is blessed in spite of this childhood heartbreak, my brother's suicide, and my sister's issues with epilepsy and suicidal tendencies. I have a remarkable life, and at each station, I have been fortunate to know a God that holds me steadfast with the fascinating adventure and mystery of the world so created by him. I want you to travel with me and feel the rain upon your face, stand in awe of the descriptive sunrises and sunsets, hear the birds waking up, and picture the magnificent race horses galloping around the horse farm. Visualize the wild coyote and the white-tailed deer that dwell around me. Meet great Biblical leaders of the Bible and Christian warriors and missionaries of yesterday and today. Enjoy quotes and stories by the famous and not so famous but extraordinary women and men who have made and are making a difference in the world that we live in. Experience God's seasons with me as I paint you a spring with cherry blossoms and dogwood trees surrounded by buttercups, show you the colors of autumn highlighting the vivid oranges, yellows, and reds, smell the evergreen pines, honeysuckle vines as I ask you to swim in their fragrance, on my favorite prayer walk in the park, sit with me around the warm fires, and walk in the snow with me during Christmastime. Settle down in my snug old barn office with hot coffee as I ask you to join me for devotional and prayer. May you exhale and inhale passion as the devotionals come alive in your heart with eternal hope and love.
