Southern Surrender:

Raising the White Flag David Silkenat, 2019-02-27 The American Civil War began with a laying down of arms by Union troops at Fort Sumter and it ended with a series of surrenders most famously at Appomattox Courthouse But in the intervening four years both Union and Confederate forces surrendered en masse on scores of other occasions Indeed roughly one out of every four soldiers surrendered at some point during the conflict In no other American war did surrender happen so frequently David Silkenat here provides the first comprehensive study of Civil War surrender focusing on the conflicting social political and cultural meanings of the action Looking at the conflict from the perspective of men who surrendered Silkenat creates new avenues to understand prisoners of war fighting by Confederate guerillas the role of southern Unionists and the experiences of African American soldiers The experience of surrender also sheds valuable light on the culture of honor the experience of combat and the laws of war

Stopping the Killing Roy Licklider, 1995-03 Yugoslavia Rwanda Liberia Somalia Azerbaijan El Salvador Northern Ireland Lebanon Cambodia all provide bloody evidence that civil wars continue to have a powerful impact on the international scene Because they tear at the very fabric of a society and pit countryman against countryman civil wars are often the most brutal and difficult to extinguish witness the American Revolution And yet civil wars do inevitably end England is no longer criss crossed by warring armies representing York and Lancaster or King and Parliament The French no longer kill one another over the divine right of kings Argentines seem reconciled to living in a single state rather than several The ideologies of the Spanish Civil War now seem largely irrelevant And the possibility of Southern secession is an issue long buried in the American past The question then begs itself how do people who have been killing one another with considerable enthusiasm and success come together to form a common government How can individuals and factions work together politically and economically with others who have killed their friends parents children and lovers How are armed societies disarmed What effect does a total military victory have on a lasting peace In sum how are civil societies constructed from civil violence and chaos This is the central concern of Stopping the Killing In this highly original and much needed volume a distinguished group of experts on civil wars discuss both specific conflicts and broader theoretical issues Individual chapters examine civil wars in Colombia the Sudan Yemen America Greece and Nigeria and analyze the causes of peace the relationship between the battlefield and the negotiating table and issues of settlement An introduction and conclusion by the editor unify the volume Contributors include Jonathan Hartlyn Univ of North Carolina Caroline Hartzell Univ of California Davis Jane E Holl U S Military Academy John Iatrides Southern Connecticut State University James O Connell University of Bradford Donald Rothchild Univ of California Davis Stephen John Stedman Johns Hopkins Univ Robert Harrison Wagner Univ of Texas Austin Harvey Waterman Rutgers Univ Manfred Wenner Northern Illinois Univ and I William Zartman Johns Hopkins Univ
