Annual Report Oregon. State Banking Dept, 1918 Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, 1920 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1960 Classroom 15 Peter Laufer, 2020-12-15 A result of an investigative report by tenacious University of Oregon journalism students Classroom 15 tells the story of how the dreams of fourth grade students at the Riverside School Roseburg in rural Oregon timber country were crushed by the prevailing Red Scare McCarthyism state and societal censorship and J Edgar Hoover's FBI The teacher of Classroom 15 known fondly as Mr McFetridge assigned a pen pal project in an effort to take geography lessons outside of the classroom Imagining a place as far from Oregon as they possibly could the students wrote letters to nine and ten year old counterparts in the Soviet Union Janice Boyle the class secretary reached out to Oregon's Congressional representative Charles O Porter seeking assistance connecting with peers in Russia Representative Porter forwarded the letter to the Secretary of State Christian

Herter and a week later the students received the shocking and disheartening news that their benign request had been needlessly denied. In the wake of McCarthyism the Eisenhower administration subverted the assignment fearing Communist propaganda would infect the innocent minds of eager Oregon schoolchildren. The students' plight quickly gained national attention with stories running from the Roseburg News Review to the New York Times. The publicity didn't miss the attention of J. Edgar Hoover's FBI. His agents investigated. They traveled to Roseburg, collected evidence, and took it back to the Bureau's regional headquarters in Portland. The public reaction was swift and unrelenting. The teacher and the Congressman were attacked by outraged Roseburg citizens, the school board, and enraged Americans across the country. Classroom 15 is all the above and a page-turning adventure story told with the voices of the empowered, tenacious University of Oregon journalism students who took the nascent story and demonstrated their unwavering devotion to the journalistic process by telling the tale.

History of the Columbia River Valley from the Dalles to the Sea Fred Lockley, 1928 Oregon Historical Quarterly, 2014 The Literary Digest, 1910 Annual Report of the State Bank Examiner to the Board of Bank Commissioners of the State of Oregon Oregon. Office of State Bank Examiner, 1909 Digest; Review of Reviews Incorporating Literary Digest, 1920 Annual Report of the State Banking Department of the State of Oregon ... Oregon. State Banking Department, 1917 Making a Modern U.S. West Sarah Deutsch, 2022

To many Americans in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the West was simultaneously the greatest symbol of American opportunity, the greatest story of its history, and the imagined blank slate on which the country's future would be written. From the Spanish American War in 1898 to the Great Depression's end from the Mississippi to the Pacific, policymakers at various levels and large-scale corporate investors along with those living in the West and its borderlands struggled over who would define modernity, who would participate in the modern American West, and who would be excluded. In Making a Modern U.S. West Sarah Deutsch surveys the history of the U.S. West from 1898 to 1940. Centering what is often relegated to the margins in histories of the region, the flows of people, capital, and ideas across borders, Deutsch attends to the region's role in constructing U.S. racial formations and argues that the West as a region was as important as the South in constructing the United States as a white man's country. While this racial formation was linked to claims of modernity and progress by powerful players, Deutsch shows that visions of what constituted modernity were deeply contested by others. This expansive volume presents the most thorough examination to date of the American West from the late 1890s to the eve of World War II. Literary Digest, 1920 Oregon Education Journal, 1927 Stumble Out On Deck, The Oregon Countryman, 1919
