

Woman's life may be divided into three stages; in the first she dreams of love, in the second experiences it, in the last she regrets it.

Impersonations The Artifice of Brahmin Masculinity in South Indian Dance centers on an insular community of Smarta Brahmin men from the Kuchipudi village in Telugu speaking South India who are required to don stri vesam woman s guise and impersonate female characters from Hindu religious narratives Impersonation is not simply a gender performance circumscribed to the Kuchipudi stage but a practice of power that enables the construction of hegemonic Brahmin masculinity in everyday village life However the power of the Brahmin male body in stri vesam is highly contingent particularly on account of the expansion of Kuchipudi in the latter half of the twentieth century from a localized village performance to a transnational Indian dance form This book analyzes the practice of impersonation across a series of boundaries village to urban Brahmin to non Brahmin hegemonic to non normative to explore the artifice of Brahmin masculinity in contemporary South Indian dance
