Teachers Exploring Tasks in English Language Teaching Jane Willis, 2004-11-30 Winner British Council Innovation in English Language Teaching Award 2006 This book was written for language teachers by language teachers with a view to encouraging readers to use more tasks in their lessons and to explore for themselves various aspects of task based teaching and learning It gives insights into ways in which tasks can be designed adapted and implemented in a range of teaching contexts and illustrates ways in which tasks and task based learning can be investigated as a research activity Practising language teachers and student professionals on MA TESOL Applied Linguistics courses will find this a rich resource of varied experience in the classroom and a stimulus to their own qualitative studies Teachers Exploring Tasks C.·□□□□ (□),J.·□□□□ (□),2009

Task-Based Language Teaching and Assessment N. P. Sudharshana, Lina Mukhopadhyay, 2022-02-05 This book provides interdisciplinary perspectives on task based language teaching TBLT and task based language assessment TBLA in English as a second language ESL context It discusses theoretical and experimental insights of TBLT and TBLA from cognitive cognitive linguistic and psycholinguistic viewpoints The chapters written by leading language teaching specialists in the field introduce the reader to a comprehensive range of issues related to TBLT and TBLA such as curriculum design materials development and classroom teaching testing With interdisciplinary appeal the book is a valuable resource for researchers in task based language teaching and assessment It is equally useful for teachers to whom it offers practical suggestions for designing tasks for teaching and testing

Task-Based Language Teaching in Foreign Language Contexts Ali Shehadeh, Christine A. Coombe, 2012-10-17 This volume extends the Task Based Language Teaching Issues Research and Practice books series by deliberately exploring the potential of task based language teaching TBLT in a range of EFL contexts It is specifically devoted to providing empirical accounts about how TBLT practice is being developed and researched in diverse educational contexts particularly where English is not the dominant language By including contributions from settings as varied as Japan China Korea Venezuela Turkey Spain and France this collection of 13 studies provides strong indications that the research and implementation of TBLT in EFL settings is both on the rise and interestingly diverse not least because it must respond to the distinct contexts constraints and possibilities of foreign language learning The book will be of interest to SLA researchers and students in applied linguistics and TESOL It will also be of value to course designers and language teachers who come from a broad range of formal and informal educational settings encompassing a wide range of ages and types of language learners

Contemporary Task-Based Language Teaching in Asia Michael Thomas, Hayo Reinders, 2015-02-26 Over the last decade task based approaches to language learning and teaching TBLT have become a global focus of increased levels of research Governments around the world have turned to TBLT as a potential solution for curricula that lack authentic and meaningful engagement with language learning and are failing to motivate students as a result This book focuses on Asia where this shift has been particularly in evidence

TBLT has often been implemented in top down approaches to curriculum development which presents a huge range of challenges at the cultural as well as the pedagogic level Contemporary Task Based Language Teaching in Asia looks at the drivers stakeholders and obstacles across the region Some countries have adapted TBLT to deal with the local constraints others have found it hard to apply and many are still in the process of investigating its implementation in their specific contexts This collection is important to all involved in language development from curriculum reform to materials development It assists from programme evaluation to the setting of assessment standards The chapters cover all aspects of language education across Asia from primary to tertiary private and public education as well as innovations at local regional and national levels

Tasks in Second Language Learning Virginia Samuda, Martin Bygate, 2007-11-27 Tasks in Second Language Learning aims to re centre discussion of the ways in which language learning tasks can help offer a holistic approach to language learning and to explore the research implications It relates the broad educational and social science rationale for the use of tasks to the principles and practices of their classroom use The authors provide a balanced review of research as a basis for exploring a broader research agenda Throughout the book offers telling illustration of the contributions of a range of specialists in research teaching methodology and materials development and of the authors own argument
