

THE HIPPOCRATIC OATH

I swear by Apollo the physician, and Asclepius, and Hygieia and Panacea and all the gods and goddesses as my witnesses, that, according to my ability and judgement, I will keep this Oath and this contract:

To hold him who taught me this art equally dear to me as my parents, to be a partner in life with him, and to fulfill his needs when required; to look upon his offspring as equals to my own siblings, and to teach them this art, if they shall wish to learn it, without fee or contract; and that by the set rules, lectures, and every other mode of instruction, I will impart a knowledge of the art to my own sons, and those of my teachers, and to students bound by this contract and having sworn this Oath to the law of medicine, but to no others.

I will use those dietary regimens which will benefit my patients according to my greatest ability and judgement, and I will do no harm or injustice to them.

I will not give a lethal drug to anyone if I am asked, nor will I advise such a plan; and similarly I will not give a woman a pessary to cause an abortion.

In purity and according to divine law will I carry out my life and my art.

I will not use the knife, even upon those suffering from stones, but I will leave this to those who are trained in this craft.

Into whatever homes I go, I will enter them for the benefit of the sick, avoiding any voluntary act of impropriety or corruption, including the seduction of women or men, whether they are free men or slaves.

Whatever I see or hear in the lives of my patients, whether in connection with my professional practice or not, which ought not to be spoken of outside, I will keep secret, as considering all such things to be private.

So long as I maintain this Oath faithfully and without corruption, may it be granted to me to partake of life fully and the practice of my art, gaining the respect of all men for all time. However, should I transgress this Oath and violate it, may the opposite be my fate.

Ambivalence Tim Clairmont,2024-01-04 When I first started writing this book I typed an introduction trying to explain why everyone should read it I wanted to let all the salespeople of the world know why they should care about their customers and I wanted to convince them that the top salespeople are the ones who care about their customers the most While I still believe that this is true I don t know it for sure Regardless I can say with confidence that this book is not for salespeople who don t care about their customers If you don t care about your customers please don t read any further In fact if you don t care about your customers please consider a different career It s people like you who stay in sales for the wrong reasons that give salespeople a bad reputation If you do care about your customers then this book is about how you can show them that you care even more This is about how you can help them in their own personal journey toward happiness The old school ways of selling where you try to manipulate and cajole your prospective client into buying something are truly obsolete We live in a time when people have endless information at their fingertips They care what you think but they know much of the basic information themselves Most of all they want a salesperson they can trust If you are looking for more manipulative sales tactics to figure out how to take advantage of more people and close more sales then please don t continue to read this book If you are interested in helping to promote what I believe to be one of the most noble professions on the planet that of an ethical salesperson then please read further And share what you read I want everyone to be happier That is why I wake up each morning That is why I run my wealth management firm That is why I wrote this book I hope that is why you are reading it
