Vedanta For All:

Vedanta For All Swami Satprakashananda,2022-02-06 This book is a collection of Swami Satprakashananda's class talks on different aspects of Vedanta. One of his disciples has compiled and edited the talks and produced this book. The book has 15 chapters discussing in a conversational tone topics including the aura of meditation, the dichotomy of good and evil, the reconciliation between divine grace and the law of karma, the inter relation between reason, volition and emotion, and what happens after death. The book is not only Vedanta for All but also All about Vedanta. Vedanta for All Swami Avyaktananda,1972 Quest for the Eternal Cliff W. Johnson,2013-01-03 Quest for the Eternal is a clear presentation of India's ancient philosophy written by a former monk of an Indian religious Order. It is a clear description and explanation of the basic principles and teachings of Vedanta, offering insights and direction for all who are seeking the wholeness, security and joy that can only be found in our connection to the one Source of all life and creation. Vedanta philosophy offers a thorough and concise foundation for spiritual living and attainment. The teachings embrace and support all religions and spiritual paths leading to realization of Truth. Vedanta does not prescribe any form of conversion but rather encourages us to embrace the path we are drawn to naturally. It offers to all the aid of an exceptional depth of understanding and clear expression of spiritual Truth that has come down to us through the ages. Lectures from Columbo to Almora Swami Vivekananda,1908 The American Theosophist,1912 The Theosophist,1886 Nectar #33 Swami Brahmeshananda,Annapurna Sarada,Rabbi Rami Shapiro,Swami Bhuteshananda,Babaji Bob Kindler,Lex Hixon,Llewellyn Vaughn-Lee,Swami Aseshananda,2018-01-01 In an issue dedicated almost entirely to the spiritual artform of meditation, Nectar of Nondual Truth explores and presents this most needed and necessary facet of spiritual life through the lighted windows of various religious traditions in conscious operation in today's world. Yogic based eight limbed meditation upon everything from objects in matter to the realization of a yogi's conscious Essence is taken up. Meditation on the timeless beneficial utterance of divine names in a tradition that also favors Reality as nameless is studied thoroughly by a Rabbi via the Jewish tradition. Then even the very breath that utters the divine names is inspected in an article on meditation by a teacher in the Sufi tradition. The striking and sobering question asked in several traditions of India that of Who Am I is looked at first hand by an advanced meditator on personal retreat in the Chan Zen tradition who then also takes his place as an interviewer to question a Japanese Rishi about meditation practice in the Soto Zen tradition. Three revered Swamis of the Ramakrishna Order offer up their insights into this superlative examination of meditation and meditator from different perspectives. Specifically the very purpose of sitting still and looking within to find the purpose of the entire practice is presented by a long time practitioner and finally an article scrutinizing this most subtle of all yogas from the succinctly nondual position is pondered via the noble Advaita Vedanta perspective. Thus does this age old and crucial principle of inmost practice known in Raja Yoga as the singular doorway to Samadhi or Nirvana receive a thorough observation from all angles.
