Wheres My Shadow:

Where's My Shadow? Alyssa Petersen, 2018 Claudia the groundhog loves to sleep and she's disappointed and confused when she wakes to find no shadow on a sunny day. When her shadow appears a few minutes later Fox helps her to make sense of why she didn't see her shadow upon waking up. The Case That Never Dies Lloyd Gardner, 2012-06-12 Essential reading for anyone interested in the most famous American crime of the twentieth century. Since its original publication in 2004 The Case That Never Dies has become the standard account of the Lindbergh Kidnapping. Now in a new afterword, historian Lloyd C. Gardner presents a surprise conclusion based on recently uncovered pieces of evidence that were missing from the initial investigation, as well as an evaluation of Charles Lindbergh's role in the search for the kidnapers. Out of the controversies surrounding the actions of Colonel Lindbergh, Norman Schwarzkopf, commander of the New Jersey State Police, and FBI director J. Edgar Hoover, Gardner presents a well-reasoned argument for what happened on the night of March 1, 1932. The Case That Never Dies places the Lindbergh kidnapping investigation and trial in the context of the Depression, when many feared the country was on the edge of anarchy. Gardner delves deeply into the aspects of the case that remain confusing to this day, including Lindbergh's dealings with crime baron Owney Madden, Al Capone's New York counterpart, as well as the inexplicable exploits of John Condon, a retired schoolteacher who became the prosecution's best witness. The initial investigation was hampered by Colonel Lindbergh, who insisted that the police not attempt to find the perpetrator because he feared the investigation would endanger his son's life. He relented only when the child was found dead. After two years of fruitless searching, Bruno Richard Hauptmann, a German immigrant, was discovered to have some of the ransom money in his possession. Hauptmann was arrested, tried, and sentenced to death. Throughout the book, Gardner pays special attention to the evidence of the case and how it was used and misused in the trial. Whether Hauptmann was guilty or not, Gardner concludes that there was insufficient evidence to convict him of first-degree murder. Set in historical context, the book offers not only a compelling read but a powerful vantage point from which to observe the United States in the 1930s, as well as contemporary arguments over capital punishment. City of Bridges David Michael Belczyk, 2019-12-09 In an ancient city steeped in myth but searching for truth, a courier is killed while crossing a bridge. A century later, three friends join the city's search for the item the courier carried, but they are drawn deeper into the unsolved mystery of the courier's death. Architectures of the Unforeseen Brian Massumi, 2019-06-25 A beautifully written study of three pioneering artists entwining their work and our understanding of creativity. Bringing the creative process of three contemporary artists into conversation, Architectures of the Unforeseen stages an encounter between philosophy and art and design. Its gorgeous prose invites the reader to think along with Brian Massumi as he thoroughly embodies the work of these artists, walking the line that separates theory from art and providing equally nurturing sustenance for practicing artists and working philosophers. Based on Massumi's lengthy and in two cases, decades-long relationships with digital architect Greg Lynn, interactive media artist Rafael Lozano Hemmer and mixed media installation creator Simryn Gill Architectures of the Unforeseen delves into their processes of creating art The book s primary interest is in what motivates each artist s practice the generative knots that inspire creativity and in how their pieces work to give off their unique effects More than a series of profiles or critical pieces Massumi s essays are creative developing new philosophical concepts and offering rigorous sentiments about art and creativity Asking fundamental questions about nature culture and the emergence of the new Architectures of the Unforeseen is important original research on artists that are pioneers in their field Equally valuable to the everyday reader and those engaged in scholarly work it is destined to become an important book not only for the fields of digital architecture interactive media and installation art but also more basically for our knowledge of art and creativity The Auditory Outlook Josephine Baxter Timberlake,1930 Oct issues for 1930 1932 consist of the Proceedings of the 11th 13th annual meeting of the Federation Phantastes Mark Worthing,2016-12-29 Mark Worthing is an author and pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church North Adelaide Australia He is former head of the Faculty of Humanities and Creative Writing at Tabor Adelaide His most recent works include Graeme Clark The Man Who Invented the Bionic Ear Allen Unwin 2015 and Narnia Middle Earth and the Kingdom of God A History of Fantasy Literature and the Christian Tradition Stone Table Books 2016 Nyssia Michael Cyprian O'Byrne,1905 From Where I Sit, From Where You Stand Marshall Wall,2007-04-02 As Marshall with his wife and family rolls through life accompany him Enjoy the witty and often whimsical episodes that occur In work play travel community and worship ponder the dialogues of opinions perceptions events and realities of being physically challenged The journey which includes more than fifty years in a wheelchair is presented in a topical display in chapters on different arenas of life The Paradox Diversities of perceptions and realties The Good Old Days Early life on a one horse farm Fate Knocked at My Door The accident Angels of Mercy Hospitalization Letters of Cheer Student nurses letters Give Me Elbow Grease Rehabilitation You Can Go Home Again Summer at home The Halls of Ivy Education Keeping the Faith Job searching The Birds and the Bees Love and passion Dreams Come True Marriage and family Toiling in the Vineyards Work experiences No Man is an Island Community life On the Road Travel God Bless You God others and I Keeping the Juices Flowing Adapting Can t See the Forest for the Trees Perceptions Don t Cry Over Spilled Milk Realities The Golden Years The senior years The Journey has been one of challenges physical mental and spiritual It included two years of hospitalization and rehabilitation to prepare him to enter a world not yet ready for the physically challenged He found himself looking inside with no way in He boarded airplanes by hand walking the support rails He dealt with perceptions What can you do You are handicapped His faith and hope were tested Why me God Should I marry Will any company hire me Successes came A lovely wife two beautiful adopted babies enjoyable work friendships health and joy The Juvenile companion, and Sunday-school hive [afterw.] The Sunday school hive, and juvenile companion.
