Monty Python's Flying Circus Darl Larsen,2008-06-13 In 1969 the BBC aired the first episode of a new comedy series titled Monty Python s Flying Circus and the rest as they say is history An instant success the show ran until 1974 producing a total of 45 episodes Despite the show s very English humor and allusions to many things British the series developed a cult following outside the U K particularly in the United States Known for its outrageous humor occasionally controversial content and often silly spirit Monty Python s Flying Circus poked fun at nearly all institutions domestic or foreign grand or intimate sacred or not Indeed many of the allusions and references in the program were uniquely British and routinely obscure and therefore not always understood or even noticed outside the British Isles This exhaustive reference identifies and explains the plethora of cultural historical and topical allusions of this landmark series In this resource virtually every allusion and reference that appeared in an episode whether stated by a character depicted in the mise en scene or mentioned in the printed scripts is identified and explained Organized chronologically by episode each entry is listed alphabetically indicates what sketch it appeared in and is cross referenced between episodes Entries cover literary and metaphoric allusions symbolisms names peoples and places as well as the myriad social cultural and historical elements photos songs slogans caricatures that populate and inform these episodes Entries Include Arabella Plunkett Group of famous characters from famous paintings Hell s Grannies HRH The Dummy Princess Margaret Kandinsky On the Dad s Liver Bachelors at Large Raymond Baxter type Scun Spanish Inquisition Third Parachute Brigade Amateur Dramatic Society total casectomy Two Sheds Umbonga s hostile opening Vicar sitting thin and unhappy in a pot What s all this then Making the Cut: My Story Kurt Wagner,2011-08-05 Making The Cut the Autobiography of Kurt J Wagner A popular and controversial Beverly Hills surgeon for over 30 years no one could deny that this fifth generation physician and holocaust survivor is the atypical American success story brimming with fascinating stories and chutzpah Outspoken and flamboyant yet driven by the need to help everyone Kurt Wagner is clearly a man willing to take risks for his art His breast and chin implant designs are in universal use and his techniques and lifestyle have been the subject of many television newspaper and magazine pieces Many Hollywood celebrities can be counted in his cast of over 20 000 patients as well as a litany of plastic surgeons and their families He is coauthor of How to Win In The Youth Game Beauty by Design and The War Against Aging and founder of the American Society of Therapeutic Aesthetic Regeneration and Rejuvenation net proceeds from your purchase of this book are donated to www.ASTARR.us For the Love of Dance Dame Beryl Grey,2017-09-21 The autobiography of Dame Beryl Grey now in paperback Dame Beryl s life is defined by her love of dance Both as a ballerina and an Artistic Director she helped make British ballet the powerhouse it is today Knowing and working with virtually everyone in ballet she reveals fascinating insights into the people characters and institutions that made up world dance in the 20th century Grey began her dancing career with the Sadler s Wells Ballet in 1943 at the unprecedented early age of 14 Her natural virtuosity saw her quickly promoted dancing her first Giselle at 17 and Princess Aurora at 19 Dame Beryl was the first English ballerina to dance at the Bolshoi and the Kirov as well as the Peking Ballet Asked to become Artistic Director of what is now English National Ballet her love of dance allowed her to navigate the tricky passage from ballerina to leader of a dance company Over ten years she transformed that Company with new dancers new ballets a new home and new audiences Based on her letters and diaries For the Love of Dance is an extraordinary tale of an extraordinary woman and a life given to her first love dance Tape's Rolling Take One Adrian Kerridge, 2021-01-05 Adrian Kerridge has been part of the British recording industry for the past 50 years His revolutionary and often forthright approach within the music industry has put him at the centre of the recording world for half a century As owner of the eminent Lansdowne Studios birth place of the Dave Clark Five and home to numerous household name artists and session stories as well as the cofounding father of the CADAC console brand he witnessed first hand the technological changes of an industry transitioning from analogue tape to multi track to digital recording and editing in the 80s and forwards was a forerunner in the 60s of the then experimental practice of direct injection now widely employed by sound engineers and laid the foundations for a more modern upfront sound that was lacking in the 50s and early 60s Renown for creating unique sonic signature for bands and other recording artists Adrian s approach to recording was unlike anything the industry had seen in the years previous He recorded hot while his contemporaries were more conservative in their approach This book traces his personal journey from war time Britain to the swinging 60s taking in the technical and social changes that were to shape the way music was recorded It tells the story of a choir boy from West London who fell in love with Jazz and landed a job at a music shop A chance invitation to sit in on a studio recording of the Sydney Lipton band sparked in Adrian an interest that was to put him on a path from choir boy to the foremost Ears in the business Adrian describes how his first job at IBC London one of the UK s largest independent recording studios at the time led him to work with the legendary and sometimes volatile Joe Meek Working with Joe gave Adrian crucial insights into the talented engineer s innovative techniques which he describes in technical and personal detail After a brief stint of National Service Adrian returned to the recording industry but instead of resuming his old job at IBC he was offered a job alongside Joe Meek at a completely new London studio Lansdowne Recording Studios with producer Denis Preston who ran his own Record Supervision jazz label Adrian describes his experience of working with Joe and Denis becoming responsible for his own sessions and the studios prolific output He paints the picture of Joe s complex character as well as his ground breaking and highly successful recording techniques Joe s premature departure from Lansdowne meant Adrian suddenly found himself catapulted into the job of senior engineer and solely responsible for running the studios It was during this time that Adrian along with the Dave Clark Five led the British invasion of the U S music scene in the 1960s pioneering new audio techniques using equipment considered primitive by today s standards Adrian relates how in the early 1960s the Dave Clark Five first came into the studio and how his contribution to the band s development helped create their signature

Tottenham Sound He provides unique insights into the recording of numerous hits such as Glad All Over which resulted in huge success for the band knocking the Beatles song I want to hold your hand off the top of the U K charts in January 1964 going on to sell 2.5M copies Nowadays you can get a number one with 10 20 000 copies He describes his intriguing experiences in Germany and Belgium recording material for the KPM Music Library and other music libraries
