Sleeping In A Field:

Field, Forest, and Wayside Flowers Maud Going, 1899 Excerpt from book CHAPTER V GREEN LEAVES AT WORK
Between the budding and the falling leaf Stretch happy skies With colors and sweet cries Of mating birds in uplands and in glades The world is rife 7 B Aldrich When spring long waited for has come indeed and young leaves are unfolding in May sunshine we find the ground beneath the branches strewn with half transparent green or brownish scales In city parks they litter the asphalt walks and drift along their edges into little heaps They are bud scales whose day of usefulness is over They have braved all the rigors of storm and frost while folded safe within them lay the foliage of the coming summer destined to expand in tender colors under happy skies But the bud scales seldom have any beauty save the beauty of fitness They and the sleeping life which they enfold together constitute the winter bud It contains very little water in its tissues and so can withstand low temperatures without freezing The bud scales live in a chill and sombre world and when the sky is blue and full of light they fall and perish in the heart of spring Yet they are themselves imperfectly formed and partially developed leaves Under certain exceptional circumstances they have shown their possibilities and developed into typical leaves And under most circumstances there is in them the arrested power to become like the green foliage of summer Stunted as they are these scales have done work which perfect leaves could never do Their horny substance has shed the cold rains of winter resisted the frost and protected the tips and shoots in which the life of the branches lay dormant We owe to the bud scales most of the beauty of the summer world Their highest usefulness has been attained through sacrifice of their own Sleeping in a Field Christopher D. Owens, 2001-05 At age 24 Dave Crider's life is at a crossroads and he is consumed by a deep and seemingly irresolvable angst Nearly paralyzed by his existential fears he seeks solace from cut and dried academia a nagging boss and a failing romantic relationship via excessive drinking fantasies of exotic women and his immersion into the rock and roll subculture At the end of a very long and self destructive semester Dave embarks on a road trip in an attempt to regain some sense of balance in his off kilter life Little can he imagine the spiritual and emotional roller coaster ride that awaits him on this soul searching journey Set amidst a swirling backdrop of late 1970's hedonistic excess Sleeping in a Field captures the confusion and youthful anxiety of the times in a poetic fast paced first person narrative HEART SONGS NATIONAL MAGAZINE, 1909 The Dao of Sleep and Dream Laing Z.
