A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.),1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long knowns to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance

Under the Big Sky Jackson J. Benson,2009-05-01 Author of The Way West and the screenplay for the classic Shane among many other timeless stories icon of Western literature A B Bud Guthrie Jr brought a blazing realism to the story of the West That realism came out of the depth of Guthrie s historical research and an acuity that had seldom been seen in the work of Western novelists The small Montana town that figures in several of Guthrie s books is clearly patterned after the town where he grew up Choteau on the eastern front of the Rocky Mountains Biographer Benson illuminates Guthrie s upbringing and education the influence of his intellectually inclined father his work as a newspaperman in Kentucky and his time at Harvard University Animated by the observations of friends family and fellow authors this intimate account offers rare insight into the life and work of a remarkable writer and into the making of the literary West

From publisher description      The Rockies in First Person Ron McFarland,2014-01-10 The autobiography has not always been acknowledged as true literature Since 1970 however American memoirs have revealed themselves as a respectable literary genre distinct with an inimitable literary voice and a unique capacity to intersect narration and reflection This study focuses critical attention on ten memoirs from the northern U S Rockies including Utah Colorado Wyoming Montana and Idaho By comparing memoirs representing states that share similar demographic ecological and socio economic characteristics this historic and literary analysis reveals both commonalities and divergences among American Western memoirs Each chapter compares two books of similar thematic concerns ranging from regional values and rural evolution to dynamic landscapes and the experiences of American Indians      The Blue Hen's Chick Alfred Bertram Guthrie (Jr.),1965 Autobiography of the American newspaperman and novelist      Grasslands Grown Molly Patrick Rozum,2021-08 In

Grasslands Grown Molly P Rozum explores the two related concepts of regional identity and sense of place by examining a single North American ecological region the U S Great Plains and the Canadian Prairie Provinces All or parts of modern day Alberta Montana Saskatchewan North Dakota South Dakota and Manitoba form the center of this transnational region As children the first postconquest generation of northern grasslands residents worked played and traveled with domestic and wild animals which introduced them to ecology and shaped sense of place rhythms As adults members of this generation of settler society worked to adapt to the northern grasslands by practicing both agricultural diversification and environmental conservation Rozum argues that environmental awareness including its ecological and cultural aspects is key to forming a sense of place and a regional identity The two concepts overlap and reinforce each other place is more local ecological and emotional sensual and region is more ideational national and geographic in tone This captivating study examines the growth of place and regional identities as they took shape within generations and over the life cycle      Everybody's Cyclopedica
