The Responsibility Of Knowledge:

"The Responsibility of Knowledge," Etc Josiah Charles STAMP (Baron Stamp.),1930 The Responsibility of Reason Ralph Hancock,2011-01-16 Can we run our lives and govern our societies by reason The question provoked Socrates to redirect philosophic inquiry in a political direction and it has remained fundamental to Western thought Martin Heidegger explored this problem in his profound critique of the Western metaphysical tradition and Leo Strauss responded to Heidegger with an attempt to recover the classical idea of the rule of reason In The Responsibility of Reason Ralph C Hancock undertakes no less than to answer the Heideggerian challenge Offering trenchant and original interpretations of Aristotle Heidegger Strauss and Alexis de Tocqueville he argues that Tocqueville saw the essential more clearly than apparently deeper philosophers Hancock addresses political theorists on the question of the grounding of liberalism and at the same time philosophers on the most basic questions of the meaning and limits of reason Moreover he shows how these questions are for us inseparable

Social Work Education Noble, Carolyn, Henrickson, Mark, Han, In Young,2013-05-16 Social work and social development in the Asia Pacific region continue to grow in new and exciting ways Social work educators are an essential part of shaping social work and development In this second edition we hear four new voices from Cambodia Fiji Japan and Vietnam together with revised and updated chapters from social work educators in Australia China Hong Kong India Korea Nepal and New Zealand Summaries of each chapter are included in Chinese Japanese and Korean as well as in the first language of the author Despite the astonishing diversity of languages cultures philosophies religions economic systems and ways that social work is taught and practised in the region social work in the Asia Pacific is becoming more internationally cohesive At the same time it maintains strong foundations in its local contexts In an increasingly globalised world international social work belongs in every 21st century social work curriculum While this book does not provide all the answers it will help educators and practitioners ask better questions

A Theory for Indigenous Australian Health and Human Service Work Lorraine Muller,2020-07-25 Winner of the 2015 Educational Publishing Awards Australia Scholarly Resource Most people of European background are not aware that they see the world through the lens of the Western tradition but for Indigenous people it can seem like a foreign language Indigenous ways of thinking and working are grounded in many thousands of years of oral tradition and continue among Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island people today Lorraine Muller shows that understanding traditional holistic approaches to social and emotional wellbeing is essential for practitioners working with Indigenous clients across the human services She explores core principles of traditional Indigenous knowledge in Australia including relatedness Country circular learning stories and spirituality She then shows how these principles represent a theory for Indigenous practice A Theory for Indigenous Australian Health and Human Service Work offers a deep insight into Indigenous Australian ways of working with people in the context of a decolonisation framework It is an invaluable resource for both Indigenous and non Indigenous practitioners and researchers in health social work community work education and related fields In today s global environment where Indigenous Peoples continue to fight for self determination Muller s work is an exemplary model of Indigenous self determination It is bound to be a foundational model of Indigenous practice in field of health and well being Michael Hart Canada Research Chair in Indigenous Knowledges and Social Work University of Manitoba Lorraine Muller s work covers some centrally important issues for those that work with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and who want to understand indigenous knowledge frameworks Dr Mark Wenitong Apunipima Cape York Health Council

The Responsibility of Online Intermediaries for Illegal User Content in the EU and the US Folkert Wilman,2020-11-27 Featuring foreword from Maciej Szpunar First Advocate General at the Court of Justice of the European Union and Professor at the University of Silesia in Katowice This book delivers a comprehensive examination of the legal systems that regulate the responsibilities of intermediaries for illegal online content in both the EU and the US It assesses whether existing systems are capable of tackling modern challenges ultimately advocating for the introduction of a double sided duty of care requiring online intermediaries to do more to tackle illegal content whilst also better protecting their users rights
