War Years with Jeb Stuart W. W. Blackford,1993-10-01 Characterized by precision of statement and clarity of detail W W Blackford s memoir of his service in the Civil War is one of the most valuable to come out of Robert E Lee s Army of Northern Virginia It also provides a critically important perspective on one of the best known Confederate cavalymen Major General J E B Stuart Blackford was thirty years old when the war began and he served from June 1861 until January 1864 as Stuart s adjutant developing a close relationship with Lee s cavalry commander He subsequently was a chief engineer and a member of the staff at the cavalry headquarters Because Stuart was mortally wounded in 1864 he did not leave a personal account of his career Blackford s memoir therefore is a vital supplement to Stuart s wartime correspondence and reports In a vivid style Blackford describes the life among the cavalymen including scenes of everyday camp life and portraits of fellow soldiers both famous and obscure He presents firsthand accounts of among others the battles of First Bull Run the Peninsular campaign Second Bull Run Antietam Fredericksburg Gettysburg the Wilderness and Cold Harbor and describes his feelings at witnessing the surrender at Appomattox It is not certain precisely when Blackford penned his memoir but evidence suggests it was before 1896 The book was originally published in 1945 four decades after his death but until now has never been reprinted that the Army of Northern Virginia was the most formidable force Americans had ever put in the field Much of that army's success was attributable to its cavalry arm led by Maj Gen J E B Jeb Stuart But while Stuart could literally run rings around the enemy Union arithmetic and expertise were gradually catching up In Year of Desperate Struggle author Monte Akers tracks Stuart and his cavalry from Gettysburg to the Overland Campaign concluded only when Jeb himself succumbed to a gunshot wound at the gates of Richmond It was a year of grim casualties and ferocious fighting in short a year of desperate struggle with the gloves off on both sides In this sequel to Year of Glory historian Monte Akers provides a minute examination of Stuart's cavalry during the controversial Gettysburg campaign followed by nine months of sparring during which the Union Army of the Potomac declined to undertake further thrusts against Virginia After Stuart's death the Army of Northern Virginia would eventually be cornered but while he was alive it was often the Northerners who most needed to look to their security

The Cavalry at Gettysburg Edward G. Longacre, 1993-02-01 Bristles with analysis details judgments personality profiles and evaluations and combat descriptions even down to the squadron and company levels Civil War Times Illustrated

The 2nd North Carolina Cavalry Roger H. Harrell, 2011-12-14 The 2nd North Carolina Cavalry fought its first major battle in its home state at New Bern on March 14 1862 and narrowly escaped with its men and reputation intact The regiment was nearly decimated in the Gettysburg Campaign but was rebuilt and later fought with Robert E Lee's cavalry in most major battles including Appomattox Court House on April 9 1865 with only a handful of men This history covers not only the 2nd North Carolina Cavalry's accomplishments and failures but the events going on around them which influenced their actions and performance The author pays particular attention to the 2nd North Carolina's involvement with the Army of Northern Virginia and the North Carolina Cavalry Brigade and includes official documents letters written to and from home diaries and memoirs to present the soldiers' war experiences

Gentleman and Soldier Edward G. Longacre, 2009-05-01 Winner of the Douglas Southall Freeman History Award Gentleman and Soldier is the first biography in more than fifty years of Wade Hampton III 1818-1902 a Confederate general whose life provides a unique sweeping insight into the entire history of the Civil War in the South Hampton was a leading citizen of South Carolina before the war and the highest ranking cavalry leader on either side during the war He fought in a remarkable number of battles from Antietam to Gettysburg to Bentonville and after the war served as governor of South Carolina and in the U S Senate Hampton's life however was one of dramatic contradictions He was the quintessential slave owner who nonetheless questioned the ethical underpinnings of the peculiar institution He was a prewar spokesperson for national unity but became an avid secessionist He condemned violence and abhorred dueling but he probably killed more opponents in battle than any other general with the possible exception of Nathan Bedford Forrest He redeemed South Carolina from Reconstruction but then extended more political benefits to African Americans than any other Democratic governor in the postwar South For more than forty years he gave selflessly of himself to his state and his community not only when wealthy but also when teetering on the abyss of poverty Edward G

Longacre has written twenty three books on the Civil War His book The Cavalry at Gettysburg available in a Bison Books edition won the Fletcher Pratt Award as the best book of Civil War nonfiction He is also the author of Pickett Leader of the Charge and Lee's Cavalrymen a main selection of the History Book Club Year of Desperate Struggle Monte Akers,2015

By the summer of 1863 following Chancellorsville it was clear to everyone on both sides of the Civil War that the Army of Northern Virginia was the most formidable force Americans had ever put in the field It could only be tied in battle if against great odds but would more usually vanquish its opponents A huge measure of that army's success was attributable to its cavalry arm under Major General J E B Stuart which had literally run rings around its enemies But Northern arithmetic and expertise were gradually catching up In this work the sequel to his acclaimed Year of Glory author Monte Akers tracks Stuart and his cavalry through the following year of the war from Gettysburg to the Overland Campaign concluding only when Jeb himself succumbs to a gunshot while fending off a force three times his size at the very gates of Richmond Gettysburg put paid to the aura of unstoppable victory surrounding the Army of Northern Virginia But when Grant and Sheridan came east they found that Lee Stuart Longstreet and the rest still refused to be defeated It was a year of grim casualties and ferocious fighting in short a year of desperate struggle with the gloves off on both sides This work picks up where Year of Glory left off with a minute examination of Stuart's cavalry during the controversial Gettysburg campaign followed by the nine months of sparring during which the Army of Potomac declined to undertake further major thrusts against Virginia But then the Union's western chieftains arrived and the war became one huge funeral procession as Grant and Sheridan found that their prior victories had by no means prepared them for meeting the Army of Northern Virginia In this work Akers provides a fascinating close in view of the Confederacy's cavalry arm during this crucial period of the war After Stuart's death the Army of Northern Virginia would eventually be cornered but while he was alive it was often the Northerners who most needed to look to their security Mosby's War Reminiscences, and Stuart's Cavalry Campaigns John Singleton Mosby,1887

Joseph E. Johnston and the Defense of Richmond Steven H. Newton,1998 Focusing on the period between mid February and late May 1862 Newton examines in detail the high level conferences in Richmond to set strategy and the relationship of the Peninsula campaign to operations in the Shenandoah Valley and the western Confederacy By examining what Joseph E Johnston actually accomplished rather than speculating on what he might have done Newton shows that his overall conduct of the campaign holds up well under scrutiny Jacket Scribner's Magazine Edward Livermore Burlingame,Robert Bridges,Alfred Sheppard Dashiell,Harlan Logan,1930 Scribner's Magazine ... ,1930 The Civil War Army Library (U.S.),1965 Confederate Veteran ,1926 Books ,1946
