SCHOOL HAD BROKEN up for the summer and Ella was looking forward to the long holidays However when she went for a walk in the country with her friends one warm sunny day little did she know what was going to happen next Very soon she and her pet dog found themselves wrenched away from their familiar surroundings and pitched into an intriguing and frightening adventure taking them to places and times that Ella never knew existed Later on it also became apparent that she and she alone would have to find a way to defeat her evil enemy in order to save the entire Universe but how Everything she knew was thrown upside down and even her faithful dog turned out to be not quite what Ella thought she was Was she up to the challenge Could she ever get her old life back

Policing and the Politics of Order-Making Peter Albrecht, Helene Maria Kyed,2014-10-30 This anthology explores the political nature of making order through policing activities in densely populated spaces across Africa Asia and Latin America Based on ethnographic research the chapters analyze this complex with respect to marginalized young men in Haiti community policing members and national politicians in Swaziland as well as other individual and collective actors engaged in policing and politics in Indonesia Swaziland Ghana South Africa Mexico Bolivia Haiti and Sierra Leone What these contexts have in common is a plurality of order making practices Not one institution monopolizes the means of violence or a de facto sovereign position to do so A number of interests are played out simultaneously entailing re negotiations over the very definition of what order is How and by whom a particular order is enforced is contested at times violently so and is therefore inherently political In the existing literature on weak states legal pluralism and policing in the Global South it is seldom made explicit that making order is a route to power and positions of political decision making It is this gap in the literature that this anthology fills as it analyses the politics at stake in processes of order making
