To The Far Side Of Hell:

To the Far Side of Hell Derrick Wright, 2005 A poignant account and analysis of the bloody battle in the Pacific To the Far Side of Hell is the story of the World War II battle for the Pacific island of Peleliu in the autumn of 1944 Although this battle is far less well known even among U S Marine Corps veterans than Tarawa Iwo Jima or Okinawa the savagery of the fighting the courage and determination displayed and the casualty rate suffered by the units of the 1st Marine Division can claim equal significance Peleliu was a troubled operation from the start Since the fast moving situation in the Central Pacific seemed to have removed any pressing need to occupy the Palau Islands it is arguable that the battle was not necessary For the planners of the island hopping campaign the operation was a distraction from a more important goal the Marianas The 1st Marine Division weary from earlier campaigns was not given needed resources prior to the invasion and there were damaging tensions within the senior ranks When the Marines landed they came up against Japan s new defensive technique a garrison determined to die where they stood fortified in deep complex bunker systems In searing heat and exposed to the dug in Japanese guns amidst the ridges and gulches of an unsuspected labyrinth of concrete hard coral the Marines found the predicted short conflict turned into a protracted bloody 71 day battle

Farside Ben Bova, 2013-02-12 One of Bova s best and a classic use of the old SF theme of humanity reaching out for immortality among the stars Booklist starred review Six time Hugo Award winning author Farside the side of the Moon that never faces Earth is the ideal location for an astronomical observatory It is also the setting for a tangled web of politics personal ambition love jealousy and murder Telescopes on Earth have detected an Earth sized planet circling a star some thirty light years away Now the race is on to get pictures of that distant world photographs and spectra that will show whether or not the planet is truly like Earth and if it bears life Farside will include the largest optical telescope in the solar system as well as a vast array of radio antennas the most sensitive radio telescope possible insulated from the interference of Earth s radio chatter by a thousand kilometers of the Moon s solid body Building the Farside observatory is a complex often dangerous task On the airless surface of the Moon under constant bombardment of hard radiation and infalling micrometeoroids builders must work in cumbersome spacesuits and use robotic machines as much as possible Breakdowns mechanical and emotional are commonplace Accidents happen some of them fatal What they find stuns everyone and the human race will never be the same

Holoholo Barbara Hamby, 2021-02-23 Holoholo is the Hawaiian word for walking out with no destination in mind In the three sections of this book Barbara Hamby walks out into the current American chaos with its inferno of wars street violence apocalyptic fantasies and racial tension Fueled by an American lingo that embraces slang Yiddish street talk and the yearning to be able to describe her moment in time these poems encompass the complicated past difficult present and unknown future Every foray offers a glimpse of the world constructed from one woman s collage of consciousness Ode on My Nightingale My nightingale is the conquistador of moonlight the engine of divine hullabaloo the dance party of shining headlights on a dark road past midnight the thrill of that first kiss in the battered Chevette the wrong turn that made me burn my map clap twice summon my djinn My nightingale is the stake in my heart that can't be dislodged the hodgepodge of my brain at two a.m. when the drunks have gone home or passed out in the street My nightingale trills in the darkness thinks of nothing but his song says forget me at your peril for I am the tiara of rain that falls from the purple sky the lies you tell yourself to wake up from your dreams so listen for my song will fade into nothing but nothing is made without me I am the cosmologist of the atomic high priest of everything you never wanted to be all your highjacked dreams the screams in the middle of night the beam of starlight on the river of sleep for we are alone my darling on this planet of night and I am your little god your drinking water straight from the stream for my song is spooling into the night forever and ever amen I am the derivative of sin O let me in

The other half is spent laughing so hard you'll be glad you're wearing your seatbelt. CloudDancer readers who bought the original book demanded more. Many refuse to even loan the book to a friend; it is so cherished. And one pilot Mom reports that her 12-year-old son used a story from the first book for a schoolbook report. It got an A Plus. Some may question whether these tales are completely true. CloudDancer swears they are. But nobody denies that they are some of the funniest flying follies ever written. Now read in at least 32 states and eight countries around the world: the CloudDancer's Alaskan Chronicles and that silly sack head's disciples have started a craze that keeps spreading. So come in and laugh till you feel good.

Treasure in Hell's Canyon Bill Gulick, 1979. Walt Randall and his brother John, a Columbia River steamboat captain, organized a mining company to wrest the gold from the nearly inaccessible banks of the Snake River's infamous Hell's Canyon. They could not have foreseen the threat from a vicious band of outlaws who lurked hidden in the hills, waiting for the gold to be mined and the delivery of the miner's payroll. Catalogue of the Engraved Gems and Cameos British Museum.
