Centennial History of Washington County, Indiana Warder William Stevens, 1916 Under Dixie Sun Daughters of Utah Pioneers. Washington County Chapter, 1950 Washington County Annette C. DuPont-Ewing, 2007 Named after the first president of the United States Washington County is nationally known as the place where Abraham Lincoln's parents wed in 1806 While that is the public perception residents say they live in the county to enjoy life's simple pleasures visiting friends watching softball games or taking drives in the country It is a unique and beautiful place rugged wooded hills in the north gently cascade to rolling fertile terrain in the south Washington County was made up of 35 separate communities now anchored by the incorporated towns of Springfield the county seat Willisburg and Mackville Images of America Washington County features photographs of the areas rich culture the strong roles of religion and education the agrarian base and most importantly its families The photographs depict the enjoyment of living and prospering in Washington County History of Washington County Alfred Creigh, 1871 Washington County Paul Bourke, Donald Arthur DeBats, 1995 Correlating hundreds of individual voting records and voluminous social cultural and economic data Paul Bourke and Donald DeBats take full advantage of the evidence and supply us with an unprecedented study of how people in the 1850s developed political identities and made political choices In this long awaited book Bourke and DeBats show in compelling richness of detail how these decisions more often resulted from private considerations than from the highly publicized appeals of parties and their candidates Washington County Revisited Donna Akers Warmuth, 2008 A companion to Images of America Washington County this book Washington County Revisited depicts more of the area's rich history In an attempt to thoroughly cover this county in Virginia Washington County Revisited explores the history of settlements that were once major community centers including Lodi Blackwell's Chapel Rich Valley Lindell Bethel Taylor's Valley Hayter's Gap Clinchburg and Alvarado Learn even more of the fascinating history surrounding the railroad towns of Damascus Glade Spring and Meadowview Officially formed in 1776 from Fincastle County the county was named for Gen George Washington who was then serving as commander in chief of the Continental Army Washington County holds the distinction of being the first geographical region to be named for the first U S president With more than 200 images Washington County Revisited provides a unique visit to this rural region that once served as a gateway to the West along the Great Wagon Road and saw thousands of settlers and goods pass through to uncharted lands Washington County, 2003 Washington County Georgia was formed in 1784 by the Georgia Legislature and the county seat Sandersville began at the crossing of two Indian trails Over the course of its long and storied history the county has seen a prosperous agricultural period when cotton was king a decline in profitable farming that stunted the county's growth and economy and a resurgence in productivity and a boost to the local economy with the mining of kaolin Today there are six processing plants and numerous mines attracting scientists and geologists from many countries Washington Countians continue to enjoy the peace and tranquility of a rural lifestyle while looking ahead to a promising future Washington County Joseph P. Soares,2005 In honor of George Washington and the colonists separation from the king s rule the territory once known as Kings County was renamed Washington County Rich in history this once densely wooded region was transformed and by the dawn of the 20th century many villages and hamlets had taken root In the early 1900s photographer Walter Rogers captured the evolution of this area and the images in Washington County are all drawn from his collection of glass plate negatives The text originates from historic accounts during this period Readers will encounter pirate treasure in Richmond sea serpents Kickapoo Indian medicine men village mishaps and more
