Social Science Reference Sources Tze-chung Li, 2000-04-30 Cultural Anthropology Business Economics Education Geography History Law Political Science Psychology Sociology

Social Science Reference Sources Tze-chung Li, 1990 The second edition of this guide to basic reference sources in the social sciences contains nearly three times as many entries (2,200) as the earlier edition and also includes several other notable enhancements. In addition to revising and substantially enlarging the chapters on reference sources, Li has further increased the usefulness of this reference volume by adding a chapter on geography and one on business that is distinct from economics. Since the publication of the first edition, there have been two obvious developments in information storage and retrieval: the rapid development of online databases and the development of CD-ROM. Instead of devoting a separate chapter to these developments, the book incorporates online databases, CD-ROM, and other forms of data sources into the text. In addition, there is a brief introduction to these developments. Although the general deadline for inclusion in the volume was December 1988, quite a few titles published in 1989 are included.

The Social Sciences Nancy L. Herron, 2002-06-11 It is here the third edition of the highly acclaimed guide to the social sciences literature. Updated and expanded, this classic comprises more than 1,500 annotated citations, offering librarians and researchers fast and easy access to some of the best and most commonly used resources in the social sciences arena. The book also serves as a standard text in universities nationwide as it gives students a comprehensive overview of must-know reference sources in both print and electronic format. Prepared by leading subject specialist librarians and arranged by discipline, the book's 12 chapters cover general social sciences, political science, economics, business, history, law and justice, anthropology, sociology, education, psychology, geography, and communication. All chapters have been revised; the essays expanded; and the annotated lists of resources have been rewritten to incorporate the latest research findings and developments.

Sources of Information in the Social Sciences Carl Milton White, 1964

Information Sources in the Social Sciences David Fisher, Sandra Price, Terry Hanstock, 2018-02-19 No detailed description available for Information Sources in the Social Sciences

Sociology Stephen H. Aby, James Nalen, Lori Fielding, 2005-04-30 Now in its third edition, this critically acclaimed work provides undergraduate and graduate students, faculty, and librarians with descriptions of approximately 610 major reference sources in sociology, its subdisciplines, and the related social sciences. Emphasis in this edition is on works in English published in the United States, Great Britain, Canada, and Australia from 1997 through early 2004. Coverage of earlier works is included if coverage is historically important or not historically bound. The third edition has been reorganized for ease of searching and adds over 325 new titles and electronic sources, as well as surveying new editions and updates of previously cited works, making this a substantial revision and complement to the previous edition.

Social Science Reference Sources Tze-chung Li, 1980

Information Sources of Political Science Stephen W. Green, Douglas J. Ernest, 2005-07-15 A thoroughly revised and updated new edition of the world's leading comprehensive bibliography of American and international politics The eagerly anticipated new edition of the widely acclaimed Information Sources of Political Science is the most comprehensive English language political bibliography available offering the surest way for students and researchers to get straight to the information they need Like no other volume it provides a fully rounded view of the field both in the United States and internationally including relevant works in history economics sociology and education Its 2 500 entries cover a wide variety of source types indexing and abstracting services major bibliographical tools encyclopedias dictionaries handbooks directories statistical compilations and more In addition this edition is the first to feature substantial coverage of electronic resources both databases and Internet sites Each source receives its own annotation with entries grouped in categories to bring together like works for easy comparison This work is a cornerstone reference for academic and public libraries

Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Social and historical sciences, philosophy and religion Albert John Walford, Marilyn Mullay, Priscilla Schlicke, Library Association, 1996 This new edition of Volume II last published in 1994 has been extensively expanded and revised in all areas Fully updated the new edition includes major changes and covers a span of topics from archaeology through medieval history to statistics It includes philosophy psychology religion social sciences geography biology and history All areas have been completely updated with additional material in economics business and management

Introduction To Library Research In Anthropology John M. Weeks, 2019-04-11 This book is an introduction to library research in anthropology written primarily for the undergraduate student about to begin a research project It contains a summary description of the type of resource being discussed and its potential use in a research project

Using the Agricultural, Environmental, and Food Literature Barbara S. Hutchinson, Antoinette Paris-Greider, 2002-07-17 This reference provides the groundwork tools and terminology required when conducting specialized searches for information and resources pertaining to traditional and emerging fields of agriculture The editors present 16 contributions from librarians and other information workers that offer information on research resources across the academic area

Research Guides to the Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, and Technology Martin Howard Sable, 1986

Internet Research Skills Dr Niall O Dochartaigh, 2007-02-15 Internet Research Skills is a clear and concise guide to the effective use of the Internet for students in the social sciences The open web is becoming central to student research practice not least because of its accessibility and this clear text describes search strategies and outlines the critical skills necessary to deal with such diverse and disorganized materials This book covers all of the essential aspects of Internet research with each chapter containing a number of illustrations inset boxes and short exercises

Introduction to Reference Sources in the Health Sciences Jo Anne Boorkman, Jeffrey T. Huber, Fred Wilburn Roper, 2004 Searching for health information may be the most important type of search a librarian performs in a day Instead of starting a health care search with a blank computer screen or simply accessing ordinary information available most anywhere on the Web start with help from the prestigious Medical Library Association Each entry will show you how an experienced health sciences librarian would approach the question Texas High Schools; History and the Social Sciences Texas. State Department of Education,1920 Best Reference Books, 1986-1990 G. Kim Dority,Bohdan S. Wynar,1992 Aiming to be useful for identifying gaps in core reference collections for filling out a particular subject area for determining what to weed out and what to keep and for checking for new editions and related materials this bibliography should be a handy reference for all information professionals seeking to build up a quality reference collection Approximately 1 000 entries have been culled from the more than 8 500 entries appearing in ARBA 1987 1991 covering reference titles with imprints of 1986 1990 Titles have been chosen on the basis of their usefulness to practising librarians The lengthy reviews have been updated and in some instances completely rewritten to reflect new editions with expanded coverage additional citations to published reviews and price changes Vietnam, a Guide to Reference Sources Michael Cotter,1977 Ethnographic Bibliography of North America, 4th Edition: Indexes M.
