Song For Nero:

A Song For Nero Thomas C. Holt, 2009-10-01 History tells us that in 69AD at the ripe old age of 32 and on hearing that General Glaba's forces were closing in Nero fled his palace in Rome. He stabbed himself in the throat with a pen and was trampled to death by horses in a muddy ditch. His last words were "What an artist dies with me." But there is another possibility: Nero did not die in that ditch but somebody who looked very much like him did. This gives Nero the opportunity to start a new life in pursuit of his first love, music. But there's a problem: Nero is being pursued by two people who have reason to suspect he is still alive: one wants him dead, the other is a passionate fan of his dreadful music and wants his genius recognized. Tom Holt is an innovative, challenging, and wonderfully entertaining writer of historical fiction. NERO is essential reading for all fans of Tom Holt and historical fiction. Song for Nero B Pbp Thomas Holt, 2004-01 Songs in the Plays of Lope de Vega Gustavo Umpierre, 1975 Published by Boydell Brewer Inc Love You Too Anezia Sanchez, 2023-06-25 Feisty twenty-eight-year-old Kerstin McDonald works for her lifelong friend Michael Dunn in his coffee shop. As childhood friends, they are both habituated and unable to move on to a loving sexual relationship. However, there are stifled feelings of desire, especially from Michael. Kerstin also studied at Edinburgh University; eight years earlier, she studied at St Andrews but left after a failed relationship with a professor. This led to the birth of her daughter, Chloe. Chloe lives with Kerstin's sister, Rebecca, in Glasgow. On the way home, Kerstin and Michael crash their car on a forest road. Ian picks them up, and they spend a drunken night in a local hotel. This leads to the start of a romantic relationship for Kerstin and Ian. Rachele Morrison is the daughter of an English father and a Spanish mother. She grew up in Spain, not knowing her father. She leaves her drunken mother in Barcelona to seek a new life in London. She meets her fairy godmother in Hyde Park. Rachele jumps into the Serpentine to rescue a dog in trouble. The beloved dog belongs to Katherine Howard. Katherine is grandmother to Ian Howard and his brother, Andrew. Katherine is drawn to Rachele and offers her accommodation at the Howard mansion. Subsequently, she offers her a job as her Personal Assistant and a job at Howard and Co. A turbulent relationship develops between Rachele and Andrew, and results in a drug-induced sexual encounter after a party. Rebecca McDonald is the old-fashioned sister of Kerstin. She is a school teacher and has a house in the suburbs of Glasgow. She lives with and looks after Kerstin's daughter, Chloe. Her low self-esteem and lack of confidence stand in the way of any romantic relationship. However, the arrival of handsome new neighbor John Mulligan awakens feelings in Rebecca. She is excited by this but finds her feelings difficult to deal with. Eventually, all the characters in the book resolve, reunite, and realize that it's okay to say LOVE YOU TOO. Nero Edward Champlin, 2005-09-30 The Roman emperor Nero is remembered by history as the vain and immoral monster who fiddled while Rome burned. Edward Champlin reinterprets Nero's enormities on their own terms as the self-conscious performances of an imperial actor with a formidable grasp of Roman history and mythology and a canny sense of his audience. Nero murdered his younger brother and rival to the throne, probably at his mother's prompting. He then murdered his mother with whom he may have slept He killed his pregnant wife in a fit of rage then castrated and married a young freedman because he resembled her He mounted the public stage to act a hero driven mad or a woman giving birth and raced a ten horse chariot in the Olympic games He probably instigated the burning of Rome for which he then ordered the spectacular punishment of Christians many of whom were burned as human torches to light up his gardens at night Without seeking to rehabilitate the historical monster Champlin renders Nero more vividly intelligible by illuminating the motives behind his theatrical gestures and revealing the artist who thought of himself as a heroic figure Nero is a brilliant reconception of a historical account that extends back to Tacitus Suetonius and Cassius Dio The effortless style and artful construction of the book will engage any reader drawn to its intrinsically fascinating subject Catalogue of (printed)
