The New Birth Control Program

Margaret Sanger

The New Birth Control Program:

The Birth Control Review Margaret Sanger, 1917 Food And Natural Resources David Pimentel, 2012-12-02 Food and Natural Resources provides an understanding of the interdependency of food and natural resources that affect society It is hoped that through these discussions a more complete understanding of these timely issues will emerge This base of knowledge will help individuals and government leaders develop and implement the types of programs that will result in the effective use and management of land water energy and biological resources for improved food production and a higher standard of living for everyone The book begins by examining the intrinsic dynamics of natural ecosystems especially the land water atmosphere energy and biological components This is followed by chapters on the availability and interrelationships between population size arable land water energy and other biological resources the loss of wild species of plants and animals the availability of agricultural land for crops and livestock and the impact of land degradation on food and other resources Subsequent chapters discuss water use in agriculture the mechanization of agriculture and food production the principles and practices that can make agriculture environmentally and economically sound and sustainable and the impact of population growth on the environment and food supply Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1967

Killing the Black Body Dorothy Roberts, 2014-02-19 Killing the Black Body remains a rallying cry for education awareness and action on extending reproductive justice to all women It is as crucial as ever even two decades after its original publication A must read for all those who claim to care about racial and gender justice in America Michelle Alexander author of The New Jim Crow In 1997 this groundbreaking book made a powerful entrance into the national conversation on race In a media landscape dominated by racially biased images of welfare queens and crack babies Killing the Black Body exposed America's systemic abuse of Black women's bodies From slave masters economic stake in bonded women's fertility to government programs that coerced thousands of poor Black women into being sterilized as late as the 1970s these abuses pointed to the degradation of Black motherhood and the exclusion of Black women's reproductive needs in mainstream feminist and civil rights agendas Compelling Deftly shows how distorted and racist constructions of black motherhood have affected politics law and policy in the United States Ms The Survey, 1930 The New Generation, 1926 Human rights annual report 2008 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee, 2009-08-09 This report examines the Government's record in relation to securing the human rights of British citizens and others overseas and its work in promoting human rights in other countries The report covers rendition allegations of UK complicity in torture transfers of detainees in Iraq and Afghanistan and the regulation of private military and security companies It also provides an examination of the international human rights framework and human rights abuses in individual countries of concern including Burma China Colombia Iran Iraq North Korea Pakistan Russia Saudi Arabia Somalia Sri Lanka Sudan Zimbabwe and also in the UK's overseas territories Birth Control Review Margaret
