The Dead Are Dancing:

The Book of the Dead Sir Ernest Alfred Wallis Budge, 1909 Master and Lackey Charles Randall Hart, 1921 The Politics of the Dead in Zimbabwe, 2000-2020 Joost Fontein, 2022 Innovative and challenging study that provides fresh insights on the anthropology of death and postcolonial politics In 1898 just before she was hanged for rebelling against colonial rule Charwe Nyakasikana spirit medium of the legendary ancestor Ambuya Nehanda famously prophesised that my bones will rise again A century later bones bodies and human remains have come to occupy an increasingly complex place in Zimbabwe s postcolonial milieu From ancestral bones rising again in the struggle for independence and later land to resurfacing bones of unsettled wardead and from the troubling decaying remains of post independence gukurahundi massacres to the leaky tortured bodies of recent election violence human materials are intertwined in postcolonial politics in ways that go far beyond yet necessarily implicate contests over memory commemoration and the representation of the past In this book Joost Fontein examines the complexities of human remains in Zimbabwe s politics of the dead Challenging and innovative he takes us beyond current scholarship on memory commemoration and the changing significance of traditional death practices to examine the political implications of human remains as material substances as duplicitous rumours and as returning spirits Linking the indeterminacy of human substances to the productive but precarious uncertainties of rumours and spirits the book points to how the incompleteness of death is politically productive and ultimately derives from the problematic entangled excessivities of human material and immaterial existence and is deeply intertwined with the stylistics of postcolonial power and politics Joost Fontein is Professor of Anthropology University of Johannesburg He was previously Director of the British Institute in Eastern Africa and Lecturer in Social Anthropology at the University of Edinburgh His books include Remaking Mutirikwi Landscape Water and Belonging James Currey 2015 shortlisted for the African Studies Association 2016 Herskovits Prize Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Lesotho Swaziland and Botswana University of Johannesburg Press When the Dead Rise Christian Livermore, 2021 A survey of the motif of the revenant showing how medieval themes and motifs persist today The proliferation of books and films about the undead those literally returning from the grave in modern popular culture has been commented on as a recent phenomenon but it is in fact a storytelling tradition going back more than a millennium It drew on and was influenced by Christian eschatology gathered momentum in medieval ecclesiastical chronicles such as those written by Caesarius of Heisterbach and then migrated into imaginative literature famously in John Lydgate s Dance of Death and art But why did revenant stories and imagery take such a hold in the Middle Ages And why has that fascination held on into today s world This book offers a history of these revenant narratives demonstrating how modern horror is haunted by past literature and exploring the motif of the risen dead as a focus of cultural anxiety and literary effort The author examines the long arc of revenant tales from antiquity and the Middle Ages through the Reformation and into modernity tracing their uncanny similarities and laying bare the rich traditions of narrative

Marcia R. Collins, Marcia Reed, 1978 Walter Howard: Reflections in Moonlight Walter Howard, 2018-01-22 There is something old fashioned and sage like in Walter Howard's poetic voice I can imagine him reading from a mountaintop with the raging elements a backdrop to his words Howard is a learned man and has been an academic for many years but his poetry is in the tradition of a true romantic He uses nature and emotion to find spiritual truth He embraces beauty with all its allure but is not afraid to reveal its frightening and dark side as well Howard uses ample doses of levity to pull the fly down on our most cherished traditions and notions but in the same token he shows a deep respect and affinity for all the things this world has to offer Doug Holder Publisher of Ibbetson Street Press The International, 1910 The Dead Secret Wilkie Collins, 1912

The Fear of the Dead in Primitive Religion Vol. I James George Frazer, 2022-06-14 On the question of how far the almost universal belief in the survival of the human spirit after death which is implied by the fear of the dead can be regarded as evidence of the truth of that survival or opinions will doubtless always be divided From the crudities inconsistencies and absurdities in which the belief commonly clothes itself an impartial observer might be tempted to conclude that the spirits of the dead exist only in the imagination of the fond and foolish portion of mankind but this conclusion so little consonant with the natural wishes and perhaps the instincts of humanity is not likely to be ever popular and it seems probable that the great majority of our species will continue to acquiesce in a belief so flattering to human vanity and so comforting to human sorrow And it cannot be denied that the champions of eternal life have entrenched themselves in a strong if not impregnable position for if it is impossible to prove the immortality of the soul it is in the present state of our knowledge equally impossible to disprove it But the batteries of science have an ever longer range and on this side they may yet make a deep breach in the frowning bastions of faith Sir James G Frazer 1854-1941 is famous as the author of The Golden Bough The Dead are Dancing James Lee, 2007 Turn off your lights get ready for frights When the clock strikes midnight and the moon's full and bright it's time for dread and fear For Mr Midnight is here with two stories double the danger and twice the terror STORY ONE The world's most feared ghost The Ballerina haunts Sherilyn Sum's ballet school and casts an evil spell on her Can Sherilyn escape and save her soul while THE DEAD ARE DANCING STORY TWO Computer wiz Yue Jie and his friends call themselves the Brave Devils But when they journey to the United States in search of the OLD GHOSTS OF NEW YORK their courage is tested as they battle horrors beyond their wildest imagination
