training medic school and airborne training the Army thought I was adequately trained for combat They were wrong I was first assigned to Company B Medical It was a mobile aid station with the 173rd Airborne On my first day with the Company my Commander asked me if I had ever seen a dead man I said no In medic school we practiced first aid on plastic bloodless dummies Since I had absolutely no experience with treating real life battle wounds nor seeing death up close he decided to send me to the emergency room at the main hospital in Long Binh My orders were to sit quietly on a stool and just observe Within minutes of my arrival I witnessed the brutal reality of war up close After a week of witnessing this dreadful horror show I was sent back to Company B Med This was my welcoming to Vietnam In this book I share my personal Vietnam memories Some of them are truly funny Others are heartwarming While others bring to light the harsh reality of war During my year in Vietnam I thought God had abandoned me Death seemed to be everywhere I was sure that death was following me I began to question my government and our purpose in going to war In the end we gained nothing Upon returning home from war my horrible memories seemed to become a part of my shadow I couldn't escape them These painful memories caused me to suffer prolonged depression survivor guilt and anger Through treatment for severe Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD along with love and God's forgiveness I have finally found peace Robert L Ferguson Medic 173rd Airborne Deadly Dance Naomi Chapman, 2010-08 Agatha Raisin and the Deadly Dance M.
