Gavriluk, 2024 This handbook offers a comprehensive and varied study of deification within Christian theology Forty six leading experts in the field examine points of convergence and difference on the constitutive elements of deification across different writers thinkers and traditions

The One Christ David Vincent Meconi, 2013 By treating Augustine's passages on deification both chronologically and constructively Meconi situates Augustine in a long chorus of Christian pastors and theologians who understand the essence of Christianity as the human person's total and transformative union with God

Imitation, Knowledge, and the Task of Christology in Maximus the Confessor Luke Steven, 2020-03-10 Maximus the Confessor 580-662 was a monk and theologian whose combative historical era committed doctrinal reflection and loud and influential voice took him on a turbulent career of traveling and writing around the Mediterranean Maximus was a spiritual teacher an ascetic a man in love with Scripture and with Christ the Word at Scripture's heart He was also a polemicist a crafter of dogma an embattled christologist a premeditating rhetorician In this study Luke Steven picks up a spiritual and philosophical strand that binds together these two disparate sides of the man and his writings Steven argues that throughout his oeuvre the Confessor positions imitation as the key to knowledge This lasting epistemology characterizes his earlier ascetic and spiritual works and in his later works it prominently defines his dogmatic christological method that is the means by which he communicates and persuades and brings people to understand and encounter Jesus Christ the one with two natures divine and human This is a multifaceted study that offers a deep assessment of Maximus's forebears new insight on the animating assumptions of his thought and an unprecedented focus on the rhetoric and method of his christological writings
