Fostering Diversity and Inclusion Through Curriculum Transformation Tabane, Cily Elizabeth Mamatle, Diale, Boitumelo Molebogeng, Mawela, Ailwei Solomon, Zengele, Thulani Vincent, 2023-07-19 Because of the COVID 19 Pandemic students and lecturers were left to absorb and negotiate waves of constantly changing government instructions blended in the online world with disinformation and fearmongering while still attempting to pursue the exchange and expansion of teaching content Student and lecturer wellness needs have begun expanding and changing along with the needs of the disabled community all of which must be considered and integrated towards a responsible curriculum transformation Fostering Diversity and Inclusion Through Curriculum Transformation offers a rounded revisioning of curriculum transformation within this era and covers newly emerging case studies in the wake of the COVID 19 Pandemic Covering key topics such as curriculum assessment diversity and evaluation this premier reference source is ideal for principals administrators researchers scholars academicians practitioners instructors and students Technology-Enhanced Learning and the Virtual University Michael David Sankey, Henk Huijser, Rachel Fitzgerald, 2023-09-20 Since the first works on Higher Education Administration in the 1970s no comprehensive work in terms of purpose and scope of Higher Education has been published There have been important changes in people's aspirations vis vis higher education globally In parallel the higher education systems worldwide have been undergoing constant transformation in response to these aspirations From governments employers and prospective students and their parents the stakeholders in higher education system are now extremely varied paying close attention to the various aspects of higher education from infrastructure on campus safety and security to administration faculty and curricula The present series attempts to take into account the issues of importance to all the stakeholders Hence the series not only pays attention to the purpose and outcomes of higher education but also the economics surrounding higher education vis a vis marketization The nitty gritty of running and maintaining a university infrastructure impact of globalization and internationalization on delivery and demand of higher education the commoditization of research and changing paradigms of teaching and learning fall within the purview of the series The increasing competition from other entities to provide degrees certificates or other forms of credentials makes it important to have a work that brings all of the elements together to see how they actually interact and inter relate from a systems perspective The present series attempts to comprehensively attend to these issues and provide a complete reference resource to all those involved and interested in setting up of a Higher Education institution and its administration

Leadership in Theological Education, Volume 2 Fritz Deininger,Orbelina Eguizabal,2017-11-14 The ICETE Programme for Academic Leadership IPAL was officially established in 2010 and arose out of the need to provide training to theological institutions in different regions of the world IPAL provides a three year cycle of seminars for the professional development of evangelical academic leaders and administrators to help institutions in their pursuit of quality and excellence in theological education This publication is the second of three volumes intended to accompany and support the IPAL seminars as well as independently providing wider access to the principles required by academic leaders for institutional and curriculum development Each chapter shares and illustrates the expertise and understanding the contributors have of education and curriculum design in the field of evangelical academic institutions With an intentional awareness of a wide range of non Western contexts this volume is a much needed guide for course administrators around the world A Marked Improvement Higher Education Academy (Great Britain),Simon Ball,Carolyn Bew,Sue Bloxham,Sally Brown,Paul Kleiman,Helen May,Liz McDowell,Erica Morris,Susan Orr,Elaine Payne,Margaret Price,Chris Rust,Brenda M. Smith,Judith Waterfield,2012 A Marked Improvement has been developed by a group of experts working with the HEA to provide a strong rationale for transforming assessment in higher education It includes an assessment review tool offering a practical method to take stock of current practice and look to a targeted approach to strategic change The publication also includes further resources for staff which can be used to support changes to assessment policy and practice Provided by publisher

Promoting Integrated and Transformative Assessment Catherine Wehlburg,2008-07-28 Assessment plays a key role in institutions of higher education However many colleges and universities simply add their assessment plans onto other teaching learning service and research activities in order to prepare for an impending accreditation visit In this important resource Catherine M Wehlburg outlines an integrated and ongoing system for assessment that both prepares for an accreditation visit and truly enhances student learning This innovative approach can be adapted for use in a wide variety of situations to transform a department or an entire institution
