Translation Poetization In The Quadern:

One Poem in Search of a Translator Eugenia Loffredo, Manuela Perteghella, 2009 Translation is a journey a journey undertaken by the text hopping around the world and mischievously border crossing from one language to another from one culture to another For a translator this journey can become a truly creative engagement with the otherness of the source text an experience of self discovery leading to understanding and enrichment and ultimately towards a new text This singular literary experiment intends to magnify the idiosyncrasy of this translational journey In the process translation reveals itself as an increasingly creative activity rather than simply a linguistic transfer This volume consists of twelve translations of one poem Les Fen tres by the French poet Apollinaire The translators embarking on this project all from different backgrounds and working contexts poets professional translators academics visual artists were asked to engage with the inherent multimodality of this poem inspired by Robert Delaunay s Les Fen tres series of paintings The result is a kaleidoscopic diversity of approaches and final products Each translation is accompanied by self reflective commentary which provides insight into the complex process and experience of translation enticing the reader to join this journey too

The Art of Translating Poetry Burton Raffel, 1988-09-15 This book by a well known translator and critic is divided into two parts the first dealing with the linguistic and other more technical aspects of translating poetry the second involved with more practice oriented matters The chapters in Part One examine the specific constraints of language and the unavoidable linguistic bases of translation the constraints of specific languages forms and genres and prosody and comparative prosody Part Two looks at the subjective element in translation collaborative translation the translation of oral poetry and the translator s responsibility Languages discussed include Indonesian Japanese Chinese Old and Middle English French German Spanish Italian Persian Russian Latin and Greek The book argues inter alia that literal translation is impossible that no translation can fully create the original but that good literary translation can create a usable approximation that translation is secondary not only to the original work being translated but also to the linguistic and literary nature of the language being translated into that the literary translator s primary responsibility is to the work he is translating that there is nothing ever definitive about any translation that the poetry translator must be a poet and poems should not be translated into prose and that there must be a subjective identification between translator and translated work This is the first attempt to systematize linguistic information about the translation of poetry It is also the first book to range widely over the languages and literatures of the past and the present and European and Asian languages and literatures as well Raffel is the first author to combine in one study linguistic and scholarly knowledge and extensive experience of translation

Fafnir's Heart Priya Sarukkai Chabria, 2018-12-31 Fafnir s Heart World Poetry in Translation is drawn from the pages of the adventurous and acclaimed e journal Poetry at Sangam It features poems in 17 languages with special introductions to the work of each of the 49 featured poets and translators by editor Priya Sarukkai Chabria We knew these delights existed around the world It was a daydream to hold them in our hands and our minds all together hearing this orchestra of multiple voices in cadences of revolt and lyrics of passion That daydream is realised now through these translations Arunava Sinha Fafnir's Heart contains work by poets of various languages including most significantly the major languages of India Here some of the greatest poets of each language are translated into English by some of the finest living poets and translators Together they open doors to a world that underlies both language and culture while embracing and projecting it Its appearance is an affirmation of the diversity yet unity of poetic experience which is after all human experience George Szirtes Fafnir's Heart is an important anthology that is not only a pleasure to read but it is also satisfyingly informative about each poet and translator Translated literature is a bridge that connects people and cultures It is impervious to bullets and bombs political manipulations and religious dogma Editor Priya Sarukkai Chabria has built such a bridge with these brilliantly translated poems Sholeh Wolpe PRIYA SARUKKAI CHABRIA is an award winning poet translator and writer She edits the e journal Poetry at Sangam WRITERS AND TRANSLATORS Aamer Hussain Adil Jussawalla A nda l Andrew Shields Archana Venkatesan Arjun Chaudhuri Ashok Vajpeyi Birgit Kempker David Need Grzegorz Wroblewski Gulam Mohammed Sheikh Hemant Divate Hijab Ismail Indran Amirthanayagam Jon Davis Joy Goswami K Satchidanandan K alida sa Karthika Nair Kutti Revathi Lakshmi Holstrom Lal De d Mala Marwah Malathi Maithri Mani Rao Manuel Ulacia Mariko Nagai Mohan Gehani Muhammad Iqbal Mustansir Dalvi Namma lva r Naseer Hassan Ofelia Zepeda Peter Waterhouse Piotr Gwiazda Priya Sarukkai Chabria Rahul Soni Rainer Maria Rilke Ranjit Hoskote Ravi Shankar Robert Kelly Roselyne Sibille Saleem Peeradina Salma Sampurna Chattarji Saudamini Devi Shizuko Suzuki Shrikant Verma Sukirtharani

Art of Translating Prose Burton Raffel, 2010-11-01
Seferis and Elytis as Translators Irene Loulakaki-Moore, 2010 George Seferis and Odysseus Elytis gave the Modern Greek language a substantial corpus of translations from poets working in French Italian Spanish Russian English and Ancient Greek However the translation practices of these two Nobel Prize winning poets have long been inadequately observed The present volume provides a close examination of Seferis and Elytis inter and intra lingual verse translations with the aim of discovering their translating techniques and their personal and public goals in pursuing the act of translation Similarities and differences between the two poets are highlighted comparatively The methodological approach informed by recent findings in the field of descriptive translation studies and polysystem theories investigates the function of translation in the target culture and the relation of translation to original poetic production Throughout the book the study of translation is shown to be a powerful tool for the study of Modern Greek literature and its relation to other literatures and movements of the time while the task of the translator and the task of the writer unfold as two components of the same endeavour

Selected Verse Translations Vernon Phillips Watkins, Ruth Pryor, 1977 Translating and Reimagining - Recovering Pizarnik in her late Prose Works Juliana Nalerio, 2012-06-25 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2011 in the subject Literature Latin America grade Pass course Poetry and Prose Poems of Alejandra Pizarnik language English abstract This senior thesis thesis examines the authorial image of Argentine Jewish poet Alejandra Pizarnik 1936 1972 Long thought of as a modern poet with minimal connection to any one tradition I re imagine her as a poet of Judaism language and childhood through close readings of works many poems en prosa written late in her life and after her father s death This thesis has three chapters 1 Images of the Artist 2 New Readings of Pizarnik Prose Poems and 3 Translating Pizarnik Prose Poems In the first chapter I examine notions of Pizarnik created by critics and by the public then move to re imagining her as a poet in a new lens In chapter 2 close readings of prose poems substantiate those claims made in my re imagining Finally chapter 3 provides annotated translations of five poems four previously untranslated Los muertos y la lluvia The Dead and the Rain Dificultades barrocas Baroque Difficulties Desconfianza Distrust Devoci n Devotion and the only poem in verse Poema para el padre Poem for my Father My interpretation of Pizarnik is influenced by concepts including J Lacan s desire Bachelard s poetics of internal space Turner s liminality and Borges infidelity in translation amongst others Ultimately I hope this reading of the complicated poet succeeds in recovering essential aspects of her cuerpo poetico poetic body of work
