Something New To Do:

An Integrated Approach to New Food Product Development Howard R. Moskowitz, I. Sam Saguy, Tim Straus, 2009-06-24 Today's rapidly evolving consumer frequently changes eating habits, tastes, and diet. Therefore, to secure financial solvency, food and beverage companies must continually define, develop, and market new products. This comprehensive volume integrates all aspects of the physical food and beverage product development cycle and provides perspectives on how to optimize each component of the new product equation in the food industry. It discusses both the technical and the marketing sides, emphasizing the necessity for a combined focus of both the product process and the people market. The inclusion of case studies makes the book suitable for a classroom text or a professional reference.

Learning Transformational Leadership Stig Ytterstad, Johan Olaisen, 2023-01-01 Based on empirical research, theoretical frameworks, and practice examples, this book presents a deep dive into the topic of transformational leadership. In particular, it investigates whether participants in transformational leadership courses will practice more potent transformation leader qualities after completion of the courses than before. It examines which elements of leadership development can describe what happens in this intervention, as well as whether there is any covariation between transformational leadership and Sternberg's learning style, and the role that a coach plays in the development of transformational leadership. An engaging and valuable resource for students, scholars, and practitioners, the book includes pluralistic frameworks, conceptual tools, and lessons for further work. It covers exciting issues for the technical, social, and managerial professions involved in collaborative, creative work across disciplines.
