The Dark:

The Dark Net Benjamin Percy, 2017-08-01 A supernatural evil threatens the city of Portland Oregon in this imaginative spooky swiftly paced technological horror novel Dean Koontz Thrilling One of the best Stephen King novels not written by the master himself The setup promises furious action and Percy delivers like Richard Matheson like King An awfully impressive literary performance New York Times Book Review A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice Minnesota Book Award finalist An Indie Next Pick An iBooks Most Anticipated Mystery a technophobic journalist a one time child evangelist with an arsenal in his basement and a hacker who believes himself a soldier of the Internet Set in present day Portland The Dark Net is a cracked mirror version of the digital nightmare we already live in a timely and wildly imaginative techno thriller about the evil that lurks in real and virtual spaces and the power of a united few to fight back Masterful crafting A horror story for our times Minneapolis Star Tribune This is horror literature s bebop bold smart confident in its capacity to redefine its genre from the ground up Read this book but take a firm grip on your hat before you start Peter Straub Between the Dark and the Daylight William Dean Howells, 1907 Periods of European Literature: The dark ages William Paton Ker, 1923

S. Carson, 2026-02-24 How can the Bible inform the pastoral care of people with mental health challenges This book suggests that many if not most readers of Scripture a adopt a foundationalist hermeneutic which runs the risk of reducing Scripture to a book of instructions and pastoral care to a matter of dispensing advice For people suffering from mental health challenges in general and depression in particular however this approach can be counterproductive adding to spiritual and mental distress rather than helping to alleviate it Here Marion Carson offers an alternative way of reading Scripture for pastoral care that draws on the work of biblical studies as well as pastoral theology Focusing on Rom 5 1 5 in which suffering and hope are explicitly linked she argues that a hermeneutic based on character ethics can help Christian communities of faithful hopeful and loving people to develop sensitive and nuanced approaches to pastoral care and so to be agents of hope to those who are feeling hopeless because of severe
