The Demonologist Andrew Pyper, 2013-03-05 WINNER OF THE 2014 THRILLER AWARD FOR BEST NOVEL Fans of The Historian won't be able to put down this spellbinding literary horror story in which a Columbia professor must use his knowledge of demonic mythology to rescue his daughter from the Underworld Professor David Ullman is among the world's leading authorities on demonic literature with special expertise in Milton's Paradise Lost Not that David is a believer he sees what he teaches as a branch of the imagination and nothing more So when the mysterious Thin Woman arrives at his office and invites him to travel to Venice and witness a phenomenon he turns her down She leaves plane tickets and an address on his desk advising David that her employer is not often disappointed That evening David's wife announces she is leaving him With his life suddenly in shambles he impulsively whisks his beloved twelve year old daughter Tess off to Venice after all The girl has recently been stricken by the same melancholy moods David knows so well and he hopes to cheer her up and distract them both from the troubles at home But what happens in Venice will change everything First in a tiny attic room at the address provided by the Thin Woman David sees a man restrained in a chair muttering clearly insane but could he truly be possessed Then the man speaks clearly in the voice of David's dead father repeating the last words he ever spoke to his son Words that have left scars and a mystery behind When David rushes back to the hotel he discovers Tess perched on the roof's edge high above the waters of the Grand Canal Before she falls she manages to utter a final plea Find me What follows is an unimaginable journey for David Ullman from skeptic to true believer In a terrifying quest guided by symbols and riddles from the pages of Paradise Lost David must track the demon that has captured his daughter and discover its name If he fails he will lose Tess forever

Exorcism and Deliverance Ministry in the Twentieth Century James M. Collins, 2009-11-10 This study seeks to demonstrate that exorcism deliverance ministry is an innately enthusiastic practice utilizing John Knox's classic study of

Christian enthusiasm The twentieth century provides an ideal arena for such a study since it frames a complete lifecycle for this rite from its infancy during the early decades through its heyday in the 1970s and 80s on to creeping routinisation by the end of the century Two enthusiastic settings Charismatic and Evangelical Fundamentalist are identified and examined as the environment in which two related streams of exorcism deliverance ministry was practiced Finally enthusiastic Sacramentalist exorcism is considered in order to establish the thesis that enthusiastic settings provide a conducive atmosphere for the emergence and practice of exorcism deliverance ministry Attention is paid to historical factors within the Charismatic and Evangelical Fundamentalist streams that underlie the development of this rite As a result important secondary insights are gained into the tidal nature of enthusiastic movements the role of itinerant preachers in the propagation of enthusiasm the routinisation of enthusiastic practices and the manner in which enthusiasm overcomes institutional denominational boundaries The study provides the foundation for future investigation of the manner in which enthusiastic experience is presented for apologetic purposes the relationship between exorcism deliverance ministry and millenarianism and the practice of this rite within non Western churches

Laycock, Eric Harrelson,2023-11-07 The Exorcist Effect examines the relationship between horror films and religious culture focusing on the period from 1968 to the present Films like Rosemary s Baby 1968 The Exorcist 1973 and The Omen 1976 claimed to be based on actual events religious traditions and Biblical texts These films inspired subsequent beliefs and experiences which became the basis for yet more horror films This book draws on archival research to shed new light on such figures as Ed and Lorraine Warren and Malachi Martin who inserted themselves into this cycle It also incorporates interviews with horror authors film writers and paranormal investigators

The Rise of Office Literature Daniel Jenkin-Smith,2025-03-20 Explores the social and cultural history of bureaucratization in 19th century Britain and France via the evolving literary portrayal of office life Literary critics have long cited the clerk in 19th century literature as an emblem of a nascent lower middle class or of shifting gender roles in the world of work Moreover there is growing critical interest in the influence of rapidly evolving organizational systems and data networks on this period s culture By refocusing on the point at which these interests meet the office The Rise of Office Literature plays a synthesizing role identifying this workplace as a point of convergence between the abstract and the quotidian between structures and workers By exploring the history of office literature a forgotten nineteenth century literary genre whose exemplars focus primarily on office life Daniel Jenkin Smith argues that the portrayal of new labour practices intellectual forms and bureaucratic technologies in English and French literature served to problematize existing narrative conventions while also enabling new developments in literary aesthetics Office literature s unique position between the ongoing process of nineteenth century bureaucratization and the rapidly evolving realist and satirical traditions of this period s literature means that it offers an especially insightful perspective onto the interrelation of aesthetic intellectual economic and social history
