The Name Game:

The Foundations of Remembering James S. Nairne, 2011-12-06 The Foundations of Remembering presents a collection of essays written by top memory scholars in honor of Henry L. Roediger III. The chapters were originally delivered as part of the Roddyfest conference held in March 2005 to celebrate Purdue University's awarding of an honorary doctor of letters to Roediger in recognition of his many contributions to the field of psychology. Authors were given a simple charge: choose your own topic but place your work in historical context. Roediger is fascinated by the intellectual lineage of ideas, so addressing historical foundations seemed a fitting tribute. The chapters contained in this volume help to establish the foundations of remembering circa the first decade of the 21st century as perceived by some of the leading memory researchers in the world. Not surprisingly, each of the chapters touches on Roediger's research as well, largely because his work has helped to define and clarify many topics of interest to the memory field. The Foundations of Remembering is intended for a wide audience: students, scholars, and anyone interested in exploring the historical and conceptual roots of modern memory theory.

Believe Me Or Your Lying Eyes With "Hind" Sight! Lou Illar, 2009-08 I find television very educating. Every time somebody turns on the set I go into the other room and read a book. Groucho Marx. In 1957 Vance Packard wrote Our American Life through a large-scale effort to use psychiatry and the social sciences to influence and manipulate buying has had impressive success below our level of awareness. Since 1957 there is great evidence that our culture has become a harbinger of emotional exploitation in more forms than we can recognize and irrational profit taking in more forms than we can imagine. In these times investing in a charity is not easy within a gambling culture that has glamorized windfall profits and runaway CEO salaries. It certainly worsens when these efforts become unfettered and ignored by business efforts that not only fail to provide a product of value but offer no product at all. This madness can only succeed by turning huge profits through the creation of cannibalistic markets and non-profit corporations that feed on gambling addictions which buy moments of hope as they excite and exploit risk instincts. This baiting continues to validate at warp speed the assumption that we are a nation of impulse buyers We reverse like a school of starving gold fish fearful of the vibrations of mere foot steps and unable to notice bread crumbs on top of the water No doubt someone has convinced us that with every failure there will always be another roll of the dice The more relevant question of interest is who will roll those dice on your internet gambling site No doubt we have become more reactive but worse we have become less knowledgeable This writing is offered to encourage your thoughtfulness about your money and who and what you empower as you give it away
