Voyagers I:

Survivors Mira Angolana, 2021-05-26 Tatiana is a woman who thought that material possession was all she needed to be happy ignoring her inner self and the pain of her past One night Tatiana realized that her material possession could no longer serve as her main source of happiness Desperate for relief from depression Tatiana prayed for understanding and happiness again As she went to sleep she woke in a dream behind a rock in Angola Africa where she would find a boy who would bring out her inner innocence and warriors and friends who would take her in a battle to fight against oppression in their land Tatiana found a strength to bring back to her world to fight against the injustice that was happening around her She realized her pain was her strength Nothing can stop a survivor

Voyager Tales David W. Swift, 1997 Foreword by Norman R Augustine In 1977 Voyager 1 and 2 journeyed to the outer planets gathering information about Jupiter and Saturn sending scientists on Earth their first close up photographs of Uranus and Neptune and collecting a series of images of the sun and its planets Twenty years later Voyager Tales presents a collection of interviews from a cross section of the professionals involved in all aspects of the mission Voyager Tales Personal Views of the Grand Tour provides insights into the development of a major research project from the personal perspectives of the people who helped design build and fly the two spacecraft Readers will use this book as a case study of a project that not only was highly successful operating on time and on budget but far surpassed its initial goals
